

Pallbearers

Family & Friends

Flower Attendants

Family & Friends

"When I Am Gone"

When I am gone, release me – Let me go
I have done many works and this you know.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you love, you can only guess,
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on.
So grieve a while for me if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only a while that we must part
So bless those memories within your heart.
Though you cannot see me, please have no fear
Listen with all your heart and you will hear
And when it's your time to come on through
The Lord will be there to Welcome You Too.

Acknowledgements

The family of the late Mrs. Alexandrina M. "Queen" Trafton acknowledges with sincere appreciation, all your love, prayers, visits, hugs, generous donations, phone calls, the comforting messages, words of encouragement, cards, floral tributes and other expressions of kindness this time of bereavement. May God Bless and Keep You!.

We would like to thank the following churches and the members for support, donations, and prayers, First Bible Faith Free SDA Church, South Point SDA Church, First Coast SDA Church, Mandarin SDA Church and Tabernacle SDA Church.

~ The Family ~

J. E. Fralin & Sons

Funeral & Cremation Services
"Serving Your Deserving Community"

5065 Soutel Drive

Jacksonville, Florida 32208

(904) 924-9400

Fernandina Beach, FL (904) 491-3301

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE

for

*Mrs. Alexandrina Meridith
Casimir Trafton*

Sunrise
February 26, 1966

Sunset
July 8, 2018

Friday, July 20, 2018 ~ 10:00 AM

Calvin Presbyterian Church

4050 Barnes Road South

Jacksonville, Florida

Pastor Robert Swain

Interment ~ Jacksonville National Cemetery

Obituary

Alexandrina Meridith Casimir Trafton entered this world as Alexandrina Meridith Casimir February 26, 1966. She was born at Princess Margaret Hospital in Roseau, Dominica. Alexandrina was the second to last of twelve blessings bestowed to Diego Haig Casimir and Vernillia Casimir. Her legal name “Alexandrina” was pulled from a book shown to her mother by the Catholic Priest in Sen Jo, which is fitting because she truly was a Mother Theresa like Saint to those who interacted with her. During the latter parts of her nine months in the womb, the Commonwealth of Dominica received a royal visit from Queen Elizabeth of England. From that day forward Alexandrina became known as “Queen”. Queen attended St. Joseph Government School for her primary/elementary education. She later attended Dominica Grammar School and Portsmouth Seventh-Day Adventist School for her secondary/high school education in Dominica. Queen was known as a “tomboy” who liked to play competitive games like marble roll, marble square, and marble hole in the streets of Coubarie, the coastal part of the village of St. Joseph. She liked to stand on the toilet by the water and fish. She was good at catching a bearded white fish called “Babby”. She rode her bike through Coubarie, Otrabando, and by Layou River with her crew Mona, Merl, and Sister for Ma Elsie. Young Queen was also known as a very territorial individual who liked to fight to protect her friends and family.

Always an independent soul, she ventured out as a teenager to the island of Barbados as she started her journey away from the only home she knew. After Barbados she moved to St. Thomas, to Miami, to Albany, Georgia (where she attended Job Corps with her sister), then to California, then to Virginia, then to Puerto Rico, to Jacksonville, then back to Virginia, and finally settling her homestead in Jacksonville, Florida.

In the midst of all her world travels, Queen met an interesting young man named Winzola Trafton in Long Beach, California in November of 1992. This romance led to their marriage in Norfolk, Virginia February 6, 1997. Their first child, Zillandra was born in 1997. “Auntie Queen” as she is affectionately known by her nieces and nephews played a large role in raising not only her children but the children of her sisters and brothers before she had her own children. They were blessed with two more children: Tabitha in 2003 and Noah in 2006. Unfortunately, she was diagnosed with invasive breast cancer in the summer of 2007. That moment forever changed her life. She became a strict vegan, a juicer, an herbalist, and became very involved in holistic medicine in 2008. She rejected the conventional medical approach and fought the condition with all of her might and knowledge. She was the love of our lives, the light of our worlds. Queen Alexandrina: our daughter, our sister, our mother, our aunt, our friend, our mentor, our teacher, our confidant, and our glue that kept it all together. Her roles included but were not limited to all of those titles and she was so much more. She will be greatly missed by all of us in her large family who survive her, but her legacy lives on. Sleep in peace our Queen.

Queen is survived by her devoted and loving husband, Mr. Winzola Trafton Jr; daughters, Zillandra L. Trafton and Tabitha V. Trafton; son, Noah McHaile Trafton; mother, Vernillia A Casimir; brothers, Gillette Casimir (Tiwanna), Howard Casimir (Aulga), Ivo Casimir, Desmond Casimir; sisters, Zilma Mason (Lindy), Jessica Georges (Hamil), Advina Garcia (Renet), Morella Morancie (Julien), Vinnia Trocard (Dexter), Zillah Scotland, Carvell Mullin (Paul), Bonnie Anthony Cushnie; followed by a host of loving nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends to include special friends, Evon Glover, Rose Emerson, Thora King, Lisa Walker, Joy Corrillo, Andrea Swales, Pameta Wise, Mrs. Chico Rousseau, Alquizar, Mrs. Esther Simmons, Tene Dione, Elaine Caldwell, Corrine Fender and Sheeba Roundtree.

Order of Service

Processional	Pianist
Opening Prayer	Pastor Robert Swain
Special Music	Celina Alquizar
Scripture	Zilma Mason
Job 19:23-27
Master of Ceremony	Laplace Satterfield
Special Music	Pameta Wise
Remarks (two minutes please)	Family & Friends
Tribute in Music	Nieces of Queen
Obituary Reading	Zillandra L. Trafton
Special Music	Ariel Azevedo-Mould
Eulogy	Julien Morancie
Words of Comfort	Pastor Robert Swain
Recessional	LaPlace Satterfield

