"Perhaps"

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly on a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express their deep appreciation to all their friends and loved ones for all acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy extended during the illness and passing of our loved one. We pray God's continued blessings upon each of you.

"God Saw You Getting Weary"

God saw you getting weary, so He did what He knew best,
He came and stood beside you and whispered come and rest.
You wished no one a last farewell, nor even said good-bye,
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.
When God called you to come to rest, you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you, the day God took you home.

"This House of Clay"

I have finished now with this house of clay,
Please kindly and carefully lay me away.
And let me rest from this life of pain,
Toiling in sunshine, storm and rain.
Don't cry, don't you know God knows best.
Don't weep for me, I'm not dead.
I have another house you know,
where only God's redeemed can go.
Please no sad hearts, no hung down heads.
I do not need this house of clay,
So tenderly and carefully lay me away.
I am tired now so please let me rest.
