CELEBRATING THE LIFE

of

Ms. Anastasia Zeigler

"A Loving and Precious Soul"

You were thoughtful, you were loving
So kind and compassionate too
You were great, you were giving
And did all that you could do.

Our family meant so much to you
For each member you did your best
You loved, you cared, you shared
And prayed to God to do the rest.

You are not forgotten, Precious Soul
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We shall remember and cherish thee.

Our hearts are heavy for the Precious Soul
That has left us for the quest
But we'll find comfort in the thought
That Our Father in heaven knows best.
~Your Family~

Acknowledgement

During our season of sorrow, we want to take time to extend our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for every outpouring of comfort, love and support. We are eternally grateful to God for you and the kindness shown during the life and home going of our beloved mother, daughter, sister and friend. It is truly a blessing to have the prayers and consolation of friends. May God forever bless each and every one of you

Obituary

Ms. Anastasia Zeigler transitioned May 9, 2019. She was born July 31, 1969 to Deloris Harley and the late David M. Zeigler. Anastasia attended public school in Duval County, graduating from Jean Ribault Senior High School, class of 1988. She furthered her education attending Edward Waters College and Bethune Cookman University. Anastasia was employed with the United States Postal Service for several years; later, driving school bus for her father at Harley Transportation. She enjoyed transporting children, but her career ended with First Student Bus Company May 2015.

During her walk with Christ, she began fellowshipping with Shiloh Metropolitan Baptist Church where she has been a dedicated member since 1995. She enjoyed volunteering and traveling with Epitome of Excellence Track Club. Anastasia also enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

Anastasia leaves to cherish her loving memory, son, Michael R. Combs II; grandson, Logan M. Combs; parents, Deloris (Nathaniel) Harley; siblings, Lucinda Smith, Nathaniel Harley, Jr., Fletcher D. Harley, Ricky (Janice) Grant, David Zeigler, Jr., Samantha Zeigler, Saqouia Jones; uncle, Alphonso Franklin; aunt, Erma J. Holmes; special recognition to niece, Leilani Clements & cousin, Angela D. (Rafael) Harris; friends, Reginald Merchant & Sharon (Quentin) Whitfield and the C D H Health Care Staff; godchild, Jasmine (Eugene) Hennie; godfather, Leon Howell; a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
