

In Loving Memory

Azaan Tau Randolph

May 10, 2010 ~ January 25, 2020

Shining Light

Azaan Tau Randolph, a shining light, 9 years of age, sunset Saturday, 25 January 2020. Azaan Tau was born Monday, 10 May 2010 in Jacksonville, Florida to parents, Jakumi J. Randolph and Ariane L. Randolph. He was the middle of five children. Azaan was educated at the homeschool, Kemet's Afrikan sbA; with his four other siblings, Zuri Jendayi, Zende Tendai, Zaziwe Nandi, and Zindzhi-Azania, by their parents. Azaan Tau was very active. He was a chef who loved nourishing his family with a plant based alkaline, wholistic healthy meals. He was so enthusiastic learning about Foreign Exchange and Bitcoin and loved building with legos. Azaan Tau Randolph leaves a tribe: his parents, his four siblings, his grandparents, Deborah Standley, Rufus Standley, Lonnie Randolph, and Janet Randolph; uncles, Byron, Lashaumba, Chaundi, and Chasauri, Aunties Brittney and Natalie; countless cousins, including Kamau, Khari, Bomani, Silaha, Denarius, Ayobele, Journey and Asari; and countless relatives and friends, including George Marshall; to honor, lift, and call his name through each libation.
