Miss Me, but Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For death is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds;
Miss me, but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

We are grateful to God for the gift of friends like you who have been so kind and thoughtful during our time of bereavement. Your prayers, calls, visits, flowers, and every act of kindness have given us renewed strength. May God bless each of you is our prayer.
