Celebrating the Life of

Willie Lee Lovett

"The Broken Chain"

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories.
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you.
You are always on our side.
Our family chain is broken.
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

Acknowledgement

During our season of sorrow, we want to take time to extend our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for all of the acts of kindness extended to us during this time. The love, support, visits and phone calls meant the world to our family. May God continue to bless and keep you, as we look to Him for guidance.

Obituary

Willie Lee Lovett, 60, passed peacefully Friday, July 3, 2020 in the comfort of his home in Jacksonville, Florida. Willie was born, July 7, 1960 to the late Clayton Wilson Lovett and Ella Mae Truck.

Willie was raised in Miami, Florida. He attended Naranja Elementary, Redland Middle and South Dade Senior High School. Upon completion of high school, Willie furthered his education by attending Livingston College in North Carolina for two years. One year later, he returned to Miami, Florida and enlisted in the U S Navy where he served four years of honorable service. In 1985, Willie moved to West Palm Beach, Florida and later relocated to Jacksonville, Florida, where he met Felecia Samuel. He was a loving brother, uncle, and friend to many. Willie always had a positive attitude. He loved sports and making good conversation.

He is survived by his brother, Johnny Lee Lovett, Sr. (Pamela Cooks); nephews, Johnny Lee Lovett, Jr. and Calvin Wilson; two great nephews; two great nieces, all whom loved him very much; uncle, Nathaniel Brown (A.K.A. "Uncle Sug"); best friends, Ricky Day, Clint Liddell, Mike Johnson; a number of relatives and friends, including Felecia Samuel; and his love for Queenie.
