CELEBRATION OF LIFE

for

Mr. Lenard McKinzy

Until We Meet Again

My memories of you will always bring a smile.
The tears I cry, will now be tears of joy.
The songs I sing, will all be of rejoice.
You lived a long and radiant life,
So now it is time for you to enjoy paradise.
No more pain, no more suffering,
Your soul can now rest.
You are my father,
You were my hero, protector and friend.
I will always love you and truly miss you.
You are forever in my heart.
This is not a goodbye ~
Until we meet again.
By Davanie Green

Obituary

Mr. Lenard McKinzy, 97, was born March 1, 1923, in Lake City, Florida to the late Jerry McKenzy and Louise Robinson. He was one of five children. Lenard attended the local schools in Lake City, Florida. He lived a full life. Lenard transitioned this life Sunday, September 6, 2020.

Lenard relocated to Kings Ferry, Florida where he met and married the lovely Virginia Holzendorf. They relocated to Jacksonville, Florida and was blessed to have thirteen children.

He loved to work and was an entrepreneur. Lenard was a Tile Setter by trade and taught his children to be entrepreneurs and tile setters as well. As time went on, Lenard became a truck driver and was employed by Ryder Truck, Inc. He worked for them for many years until he got hurt on the job and had to retire from the company. Afterwards, Lenard became a seasonal cook at a hotel for many years because he loved to cook. He also loved to go fishing; it was one of his most favorite hobbies through the years.

Lenard was preceded in death by his parents; his second oldest son, Larry McKenzy; three brothers, Paul Ford, Jerry McKenzy and Jimmy Robinson; and one sister, Caribelle Bailey.

He leaves to cherish his memory, seven sons, Leonard (Rita) McKenzy, Anthony McKenzy, Jerry H. McKenzy, Henry (Melvia) McKenzy, Billy (Erica) Williams, Robert Williams, Dan McKinzy; five daughters, Annie M. Paulhill, Joselena (Melvin) Green, Wilma Hicks, Lanita (Tony) Johnson, Davanie M. (Eric) Green; a host of grands, great grands, great great grands; sisters, Jean Smith Golden and Elvena Bryant Bailey; daughter-in-law, Belinda McKenzy; loyal and faithful caregiver/nephew, Withie (Shirley) Ford; nephews, nieces, cousins; a host of other relatives and friends.
