The Life and Legacy of Dr. Barbara Ann Jackson

A Renown, Biblical Scholar and devoted woman of God, Dr. Barbara Ann Jackson was born February 20, 1953 to the late Felix Nathaniel Thompson, Jr. and Dorothy Mae Mack Thompson of Kings Ferry, Florida.

Dr. Barbara Jackson received her formal education in the local public schools in Nassau County, graduating from West Nassau High School in Callahan, Florida - Class of 1971. Furthering her education, Dr. Jackson attended Florida Community College of Jacksonville where she studied Cosmetology and opened "Hair Extravagance" Salon. Other accomplishments included Home Health Care certification. Dr. Barbara Jackson worked several jobs in the private sector; Piedmont Airlines (Ticket Agent); United States Postal Services (Clerk); and various retail outlets.

In the early 2000s, Dr. Jackson attended Jacksonville Theological Seminary and Truthful Living Ministry, where she received her Masters and Doctorate Degree in Biblical Studies. After receiving her degree, Dr. Barbara Jackson was ordained as a Pastor.

On July 3, 1971, she married the love of her life, Bishop Alfred Jackson; a Holy Union that lasted forty-nine joyful years. They were blessed with two loving children, a son, Desmond and a daughter, LaPorscha.

Dr. Jackson received Christ into her life at an early age. She was baptized under the pastoral leadership of the late Reverend J. L. Hall. She was very active in church as a choir member, usher, and Sunday school teacher. Dr. Jackson sung with her late mother, Dorothy Thompson, and her sisters. The group was known as the Thompson Sisters.

In 2000, Dr. Alfred Jackson and Dr. Barbara Ann Jackson became the founders of Fishers of Men World Harvest Church in Brunswick, Georgia. She was ordained and installed as the Co-Pastor of the Fishers of Men Church. Dr. Jackson was the Chief Executive Administrator of all Ministries in the Church. She was a faithful and dedicated servant of God. Her insight pertaining to God's word, work, and the running of the church was impeccable. God truly blessed and overshadowed Dr. Jackson with His favor.

Dr. Jackson was preceded in death, by her father and mother, Felix Nathaniel Thompson, Jr. and Dorothy Mae Mack Thompson. She leaves to cherish her memory and embrace her legacy, a loving and devoted husband, Dr. Alfred Jackson; son, Elder Desmond (Kauthar) Jackson; daughter, Tatana LaPorscha (Devon) Aksomitas; grandchildren, Yszryl N. Jackson, Qy A. Jackson, Cyn Y. Jackson and Felix Z. F. Jackson, Kendra S. Aksomitas, Keelan A. Aksomitas, Kassie K. Aksomitas, and Kayliana R. When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me*

*I wish you wouldn't cry the way you did today
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say*

*I know how much you love me as much as I love you
Each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too*

*When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly love*

*But When I walked through Heaven's Gates, I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me from his golden throne*

He said this is Eternity and all I promised you Today for life on earth is done, but here it starts anew

*I promise no tomorrow for today will always last
And since each day's the exact same way there is no longing for the past*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me, remember I'm right here in your heart*

A Tribute To My Wife

*The first time I saw your face I was instantly in love with you.
 I knew without a doubt in my heart, you would be my wife.
 Our bond has outlasted time and space.
 A love that will last for eternity.*

*Your Husband,
 Al*
