Obituary

*"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith" II Timothy 4:7*

Jacqueline Ann Jackson was born December 2, 1959 to James Arline and the late Mattie E. Arline in Jacksonville, Florida. She attended Jean Ribault High School and served her country in the United States Army for nine years. In 2009, she was united in holy matrimony to Kenneth Jackson, Sr.

Jacqueline Ann Jackson was preceded in death by her mother, Mattie E. Arline; two brothers, Steven P. Arline and Charles "Pete" Baker; sister, Alizne Washington; and niece, Carla R. Butler. She leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband, Kenneth Jackson, Sr.; daughter, Dianne Sturgis; granddaughter, Anaya Chanel Norris; father, James Arline; siblings, Warren Arline (Cynthia), Sheila Jennings (Clarence), Phyllis Williams, Reginald Arline (Cheryl), Sylvia Vickers (Harry), and Michael Arline; one special sister-niece, Javetta Straker (Robert); sister-in-law, Clara Crews (Rev. Darnell Crews); and a host of nephews, nieces, and other relatives and friends.

"Going Home"

*Go rest now precious one,
Your life in eternity has just begun.
Now you can walk, your legs are brand new.
All of heaven is now in your view.*

*Look all around, it's all in your sight,
There will never be another dark night.
Flowers and jewels, the street of pure gold,
And all of the things that have been told.*

*I can just imagine the smile on your face
As you walk all around in that beautiful place.
This is so very hard, but it will be okay,
It isn't goodbye, we'll see you again one day.*

*We love you and we'll miss you and at times it will be tough,
But as with everything, God's grace will be enough.*

Acknowledgments

The family of Jacqueline Jackson wishes to thank you most sincerely for your expressions of kindness and sympathy.
