

HOMEGOING CELEBRATION FOR

SUNRISE:
October 13, 1927

SUNSET:
May 7, 2021

*Reverend Dr.
Margaret L. Hampton*

THURSDAY, MAY 13, 2021 • 11:00 AM
THE SOUTEL CHAPEL
5065 Soutel Drive • Jacksonville, Florida

Pastor Johnny A. Legons, Officiating
Greater Harvest Christian Fellowship
9113 Ridge Boulevard • Jacksonville, Florida

Mrs. Margaret L. Hampton, a native of Bibb County, Georgia, was born October 13, 1927. Her early years were spent in Aniston, Alabama and Washington, DC. Margaret received her education in the Washington, DC area and worked as a nurse in area hospitals and private care.

As a young woman, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior and spent the remainder of her life working to fulfill the call He had placed on her. She held positions in the church where she taught both children and adult bible classes, worked as a missionary, choir director and musician. Her greatest passion was helping single mothers and foster children.

She was a gifted songstress and a lifelong teacher. However, understanding the tremendous call God had on her life, she returned to school, and received her Doctorate in Theology in 2004.

A devout member of Greater Harvest Christian Fellowship, she not only supported her church family, but was known for her love of God's word and the music ministry. She was always willing to minister in word or song whenever able.

Margaret leaves to cherish her memory, a devoted daughter, Natalie Huff (Frank), sons, William H. White (Andria) of Virginia & Paul S. White (Valerie) of Maryland; a devoted goddaughter, Ruth Keaton (Aubrey) of Savannah, Georgia; godson, Lindsey Willis (Emma); a host of extended church family members and friends.

Order of Services

Pastor Johnny Legons, Officiant

Viewing

Selection

"When we all Get to Heaven"

Invocation

Scripture

Resolution

Reflections

Sister Carolyn Smith • Deacon Lindsey Willis

Sister Ruth Keaton

Solo

Evangelist Charlene Lotson

Eulogy

Pastor Johnny Legons

Committal

Benediction

That City

I am going to a city
where the saints of God all dwell;
When I get into that city,
I'll thank God all is well.

Hallelujah, what a promise that my Savior will meet me there;
I am going to a city
that the walls are all four square.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

What a city;
No more heartache, tears will cease
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
At last we'll find sweet peace

By Margaret Hampton

Acknowledgments

May these words express our love and appreciation for the wonderful thoughts of love, words, comfort, prayers and other deeds of kindness shared during this difficult time.

J. E. Fralin & Sons

Funeral & Cremation Services

"Serving Your Deserving Community"

5065 Soutel Drive Jacksonville, Florida 32208

(904) 924-9400

Fernandina Beach, Florida (904) 491-3301