

Obituary

Ebony Latrice Carter departed her life May 22, 2021 following an accident. She was born December 7, 1979 to Gertrude Annette Carter in Jacksonville, Florida. Ebony attended the local schools in Duval County; after graduating from high school, she obtained her Associates of Arts degree. She was employed as a medical assistant for a short term; she spent most of her life as a homemaker, raising her children. Ebony loved nature and everything nature – she enjoyed going for long walks, trees, water. She also liked fishing, dancing, singing and music. Even though Ebony never married, Alvester Lamb was her first love.

Ebony was preceded in death by her mother, Gertrude Carter. She leaves to cherish her memory, children, A'nysha Latrice Lamb, Sabi Na'kili Williams, Katrice Nicole Matthews, Chauncey Eugene Garvin III, A'manda Ma'shay Carter, Carpathia S. Tapley; grandmother, Minnie King; siblings, Deandrea Carter, Willie & Ketring Smith, Anthenette & James Riley; uncles, James and Michael King; aunt, Tammy King; nephews and nieces, Charles Dodd, Kiana, Kautney, Mushaya, Milani & Quinn Carter, Willie Da'taz Summerilin, Chanel & Stachia Carter; many cousins, extended family and friends.

Acknowledgments

The family wishes to extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation for the outpouring of love, prayers, words of comfort, cards, and all other acts of kindness. May God forever bless every one of you!

~ The Family ~

ORDER OF SERVICE

Saturday, May 29, 2021 ~ 12:00 Noon

Mt. Herman Missionary Baptist Church
5527 Redpoll Avenue - Jacksonville, Florida
Pastor A. L. Jordan, Sr.

Processional/Viewing

Selection

Scriptures.....Old & New Testament.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Acknowledgement(s)

Reflections (two minutes please)

Selection

Words of Comfort.....Pastor A. L. Jordan, Sr.

Committal

Recessional

Stars

Are stars made? Or are they born to be raised? Do stars ever feel alone when there are a lot of other stars around? Does a star set in its place to be just what it is, ever to be noticed from other stars even when it is staying put in that one spot?

In Loving Memory of
MS. EBONY LATRICE CARTER
(December 7, 1979 ~ May 22, 2021)

J. E. Fralin & Sons
Funeral & Cremation Services
"Serving Your Deserving Community"

5065 Soutel Drive Jacksonville, Florida 32208
(904) 924-9400
Fernandina Beach, Florida (904) 491-3301