Obituary

Lee Ernest Bell was born May 4, 1943 in Dawson, Georgia to Lonnie & Rosa Bell. He attended Old Stanton High School. Lee relocated to New York and returned to Jacksonville in 1982.

He was a member of Philippian Community Church, under the leadership of Pastor L. C. Callahan, Pastor Virgil Jones, Sr. and Pastor Virgil Jones, Jr. Lee became disabled during a traffic accident while living in New York and was later involved in an accident in Jacksonville, Florida.

He was a comedian at heart, a jokester – he enjoyed keeping people laughing. Ernest was loved by many and will be truly missed.

Ernest was preceded in death by parents, Lonnie & Rosa Bell; brother, Rudolph Bell; sister, Francina Bell. He is survived by daughter, Marco (Robert) Barton; grandchild, Annie Grant; great grandchild, Christian Grant; brother, Dewitt Bell; sisters, Enna Jean Caine & Cynthia (Alphonso) Clark; nephews, Wilbert (Landra) Bell, Lavelle & Darrell Caine, Russell Roberts III; nieces, Cheryl Caine, Keisha Bell, Chanel Goggins, Ashley Bell; great nephews, Ta'ib, Rah'shid, & Raheim Roberts, Darnell Goggins, Jr.; great nieces, Jordan McCloud, Zola Williams; god daughter, Tanji Williams; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Time

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; Ecclesiastes 3:1-4 (KJV)

Acknowledgement

Thank you for your prayers and support during our time of loss; it has meant so much to us. A special thank you to Tanji Williams and Lisa Harris for dedicated service and care.

May God bless and keep each of you is our prayer.
