Obituary

Nateshia Shanice Lewis, affectionally known as Tee, was born January 4, 1977 to the proud parents, Lowell and Patricia Williams. She attended local schools, graduating from Edward H. White High School and Sandford-Brown Institute. At the time of her passing, she was employed with the U.S. Government Department of Veterans Affairs as an Advanced Medical Service Assistant. Nateshia loved life, her family and loved to travel; she will be truly missed.

She was preceded in death by her loving daughter, Ta'Liyah Williams. Left to cherish her memory, a devoted and loving husband, Carlo Lewis; sons, Ta'Darrell Williams III (Jyraishia), Thomas Williams (Aaliyah), Tabien Lewis, Jacobie Lewis; seven grandchildren; parents, Lowell and Patricia Williams; brother, Lowell D. Williams; sister, Karisha Stewart; father and mother-in law, Rodney and Gail Washington; a host of relatives and friends, including her very special friends, Nessa Davenport and Orri Smith.

The Clock of Life

The clock of life is wound but once
And no man has the power,
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour.
Now is the only time you own,
Live, love, toil with a will
Place no faith in "tomorrow"
For the clock may then be still.

Acknowledgement

The family extends sincere love and thanks to everyone for their expressions of sympathy, love, support, calls and visits during this time of transition. May God bless each of you.
