Obituary

On March 15, 1949, Charles Bernard "Butch" Howard was born to Samuel Howard and Marie Fletcher Williams in Ormond Beach, Florida. Butch grew up between areas of Jacksonville and Daytona Beach, Florida. He was a thirty-year retired army veteran who served in Vietnam. Butch was Sergeant First Class (E-7) over the 82nd Airborne and was a decorated paratrooper. He became a member of Kindah Temple #62 in Fayetteville, North Carolina and was also a 33rd degree mason.

Butch was preceded in death by son, Torrance Howard; brothers, Ronald Howard & Leroy Rodgers. He leaves to cherish his memory, children, Katrina Howard-Wright (Gary) of Orlando, Florida, Ivy Howard of San Antonio, Texas, Sean Howard of Texas, Shantae Johnson (Craig) of Miami, Florida; seven grandchildren; two great grandchildren; sisters, Darlene Bennett of Virginia, Gail Smith of Jacksonville, Florida, Barbara Rodgers of Daytona Beach, Florida; loving significant other, Loretta Howard-Glover; a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

"There Is A Time For Everything"

*There is a time for everything,
And a season for every activity under the heavens:
A time to be born and a time to die,
A time to plant and a time to uproot,
A time to kill and a time to heal,
A time to tear down and a time to build,
A time to weep and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn and a time to dance*
