THE OBITUARY

Alice Evon Chambers was the daughter of the late Quincy Adam White, Sr. and Odessa Huntley. She was born on January 6, 1952 in Union County, North Carolina. She went to be with the Lord on Sunday, April 17, 2022.

Evon attended East Union in Marshville, North Carolina. Evon accepted Christ at an early age at Elizabeth Baptist Church in Marshville, North Carolina. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and servant to anyone who needed help she also loved to read.

Evon was united in holy matrimony with James Curtis Chambers on December 20, 1968. Their union was blessed with seven children. She was employed by New Generation Academy until her retirement.

She was preceded in death by her husband: James Curtis Chambers; son: Timothy Evans Chambers; three daughters: Darlene Chambers, Della Huntley and Stella Huntley; three sisters: Carolina White, Vanessa McClendon and Norma Jackson; five brothers: Melvin Barrino, James Granger Barrino, James White and Gregory White and grandmother: Mittie Huntley.

She leaves to cherish her memory to her son: Ron Chambers of the home; daughter: Angela Brooks (Metro) of Monroe, North Carolina; brothers: Quincy White, Jr., Calvin Barrino (Angela) and Johnny Barrino; sisters: Peggy Harrell (Robert), Inetha White, Loretta White and Rita Massey; eleven grandchildren: Brandon White, Edward Doster, LaBryan Chambers, Kimarui Brooks, Porshia White, Kimyttay Doster, Zeeondrea Chambers, Amija Brooks, Kendall Brooks, Ta'Aliyah Chambers and Karrine Brooks along with a host of great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Miss you Mom.....

A thousand words could not bring you back.....I know because I tried.....

A thousand tears could not bring you back.....I know because I cried

I really miss you mom

I miss you mom, although your soul is at rest, and your body is free from pain, The world would be like heaven if I had you back again.

*You're always in my thoughts no matter where I go, always in my heart, because I loved you so,
however long my life might last,
whatever land I view, whatever joy
or grief is mine, I still remember you
I really miss you mom*
