The Obituary

Mr. Eugene Mackey was born November 22, 1941. He departed his life on Sunday, January 15, 2023 at the age of 81 at Hospice of Monroe.

Eugene attended Western Union High School graduating with the class of 1963. After graduating he worked as a truck driver for most of his younger years. He also worked as a textile worker at Textile Waste and later with Lester and Jim Howie until his health started to fail him.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother: Willie Stewart; mother: Pearlie Mae Roy; father: Sam Cosart and grandson: Shea Mackey.

Eugene loved and enjoyed people and life.

He leaves to cherish his memories two daughters: Michelle Mackey of Waxhaw, North Carolina and Shenita Mackey (Walter) of Cheraw, South Carolina; ex-wife and mother of his children: Martha Mackey; two grandsons: Antwain Mackey and Jiante Robinson; eight great-grandchildren: Jianna Robinson, Tayshawn Mackey, Ava Mackey, Alysha Williams, Janeia Robinson, Kalen Robinson, Jaxon Mackey and Jamari Robinson along with nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

Author: Christina Georgina Rossetti

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.*
