en I come to the end of the day, And the sun has set for me at no rites in a gloom-filled room Why cry for a soul set free?

iss me a little-but not too long I not with your head bowed low mber the love that we once shared Miss me-but let me go this is a journey we all must take And each must go alone. t's all part of the Master's plan A step on the road to home en you are lonely and sick of heart Go to the friends we know ry your sorrows in doing good deeds

Miss me but let me go.
