I Am Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free;
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day, to laugh,
to love, to work, or play.*

Tasks undone must stay that way.

I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow;

I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me

God wanted me now, God set me free.

The Obituary

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." Matthew 5:4

Mrs. Willie Mae Guillot, daughter of the late Fanny Haile Kirkland and James Kirkland was born May 28, 1933 in Kershaw County, South Carolina and departed this life on Sunday, July 7, 2019 at Carolina Health Care Union in Monroe, North Carolina.

Willie Mae (affectionately known as Sissy) attended Mather Academy. After graduation, she moved to Durham, North Carolina. In Durham she was employed at Duke University then later moved to Brooklyn, New York and began a career at Long Island University Hospital.

At Long Island University Hospital Willie Mae met her late husband, Joseph Guillot. From their union, she had four children: Susan Guillot of Brooklyn, New York, Lavin Guillot of Queens, New York, Lonzenia Guillot of Monroe, North Carolina and the late Shawn Guillot.

Willie Mae returned to North Carolina later in life settling in Monroe where she became a member of Children of God Full Gospel Church under the direction of Pastor Jewel Silas.

Along with her children Willie Mae leaves to cherish her memories daughter-in-law: Lynn Guillot; grandchildren: Terrence Guillot, Russell Guillot, Jaylynn Lemon, Nicole Guillot, Gary Guillot, Shawn Allen, Jermaine Allen and Christina Guillot along with a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
