

Poem from your Daughters

You taught us how to walk, talk, work, and pray.
I never thought you would be leaving us one day.
God needed his best fisherman to come home.
Though we are broken-hearted, the life lessons you taught us lives on.
The strength you gave us will help us carry on.
We will meet again one day when our sunset has come.

Obituary

Mr. Victor Cruz Torres Jr., son of the late Victor Cruz Torres Sr. and Corrine Vinson was born October 18, 1963 in Plainfield, New Jersey. And departed this life on Tuesday, April 20, 2021 at home in Pageland, South Carolina.

He was a hard working man, who loved his wife and children. He was loved by everyone around him. There wasn't anyone he wouldn't give the shirt off his back if they needed it.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, his wife, Kathy Torres; daughters: Danielle Torres and Myia Torres both of Pageland, SC; siblings: Juan Torres (Rosalind) of Atlanta, GA, Angela Torres Cox of Fort Mill, SC, Carmen Torres Pena of Wingate, NC, and Antonio Torres of Matthews, NC. And a host of other relatives and friends.
