The Obituary

Joshua Andron Bud Jr. Marsh was born on June 2, 1985 in Monroe, North Carolina to James Blount and the late Leeiser Marsh.

He received Christ as his Lord and Savior in his adult life. Joshua attended Monroe High School. He was a jack of all trades. From cutting hair, painting, tattoos artist, mechanic and electrical work he could do it all. Before his fatal accident he and his brother-in-law had multiple business plans.

Joshua was on his way to becoming an entrepreneur. He was pure, sweet, funny, and most of all he had a big heart. Anytime you were in Joshua's presence it was a guarantee that he would make you laugh. He was stronger than ever and tough as could be. He held on like a branch on a tree.

Joshua is preceded in death by his mother: Leeiser Marsh; brother: Johnathon Marsh; grandfathers: Johnny Hoyle Marsh, James Blount; grandmother: Martah Blount; uncle: Robert Bivens; great-uncle: Archie Blount; great-aunt: Freddie Mae Simpson.

He leaves to cherish fond and loving memories his only beloved daughter: Zsameria Kears of Atlanta, Georgia; father: James Blount of Stanly County; grandmother: Vera Thomas of Monroe, North Carolina; sisters: LaQuanda Marsh of Monroe, North Carolina, Renita Morris (Tanner) of Dallas, North Carolina and Taylor Blount of Stanley County; brothers: Christopher Walker Marsh of Monroe, North Carolina, James Blount, Jr. of Stanley County; special aunt: Leslie Alexander of Charlotte, North Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends all that loved him dearly.

I'm just me.

I'm not perfect, I'm me. I've made bad decisions and wrong choices, but I'm me. I've said the wrong things, I've said the right things, because I'm me.

I don't lie everything, I've done, but I did it Because I'm me. I've loved the wrong people
And trusted the wrong people and I'm still me.

If I had the chance to start again, I wouldn't change a thing. Why? Because I'm me.

There are a lot of good things about me, you Just need to look past the imperfection to See what's right. If you can't do that

Then it's your loss.

I'm the best I can be. I am ME.
