The Obituary

Julia Louise McDonald was born March 18, 1943 in Union County to the late Mary Louise (Brooks) Allen and Richard Allen.

She met and married the love of her life James McDonald, This union was blessed with five children, three boys and two girls. They were united for over 50 years.

At an early age Mrs. McDonald attended her family home church, Mt. Calvary A.M.E. Zion Church. After marriage she later became a member of the Antioch Baptist Church in Monroe, North Carolina.

She was employed at Berr Tri-Plas for over 20 years. She was a technician until her health started to decline.

She is preceded in death by her husband: James McDonald; mother: Mary Allen; son: Ronlad Allen and grandson: Daryl McDonald.

She leaves to cherish loving fond memories to her sons: James Daryl McDonald of Lancaster, South Carolina and Tyrone McDonald of Auburn Hills MI; daughters: Ida McDonald of Marshville, North Carolina, and Cheryl McDonald of Monroe, North Carolina; godson: Robert Earl Youngblood of Charlotte, North Carolina; brothers: Richshell Allen of San Diego, California, Donald Allen (Mary), and Derrick Allen both of Monroe, North Carolina; half-brothers: Terry Cuthbertson and Kentson Cuthbertson of Bridge Port, Connecticut; sisters: Wilhemina Allen of Stallings, North Carolina and Mia Allen of Monroe, North Carolina; 11 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and other friends.

REJOICE

Do not be discouraged by the enemy.

Do not walk away in fear.

Do not take up the rod of anger.

I say rejoice -

Rejoice, in the task God has set before you,

Take up the challenge.

It was chosen just for you

He knows your minds every thought -

He is there if you are willing to surrender

And let Him take the pilot's seat.

He made you strong in spirit,

He made you loyal in heart,

He made you speak His word Bodly,

He made you in His image.

He is the eternal white Hope.
