The Obituary

Jonathan Conrad Caudle was born to the late Robert Lee Caudle Sr. and Malinda Shannon Caudle on November 25, 1974 in Monroe, North Carolina. He departed this life surrounded by his family on February 12th, 2022 at Piedmont Medical Center in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Jonathan (affectionately known as J.C) was educated in the Union County School System. J.C loved to play basketball and took every opportunity to go out on the court to show off his moves. His favorite past times were spending time with his family, watching sports, and eating good food. J.C. was an avid sports fan. The Seattle Seahawks and North Carolina Tar Heels were two of his favorite teams. Getting together to watch a game with him, especially when his team was winning, was not fun if you were rooting for the other team. He thought that he was really on the team with the players. J.C. had an ongoing rivalry with his brother James with Florida and Florida State College Football teams. He loved the Florida Gators. He would often tease his brother Robert about his favorite team the Washington Redskins by referring to them as the Washington “Dead-skins.”

J.C enjoyed trying new recipes and sharing them with his family. You could not tell him that he wasn't a Master Chef. He would often cook meals and take pictures of the finished product to share with all of us. Although J.C held a quiet manner he would often crack his jokes and make his loved ones laugh. He was known for being the life of all of our family functions. J.C was a dedicated associate at Ross Distribution Center in Rock Hill, SC until his untimely transition. He was well liked and respected by everyone that knew him. His children were the joy of his life. He was so proud of each one of them. J.C always shared their pictures and their accomplishments with everyone. He was a devoted and hard-working father who would go to the ends of the earth for his children. Jonathan loved all of his family and friends profoundly and enjoyed spending time with everyone. Despite his reserved demeanor, he left a loving impression on everyone he came in contact with and impacted the lives of many, he will definitely be missed by all.

Jonathan was preceded in death by his father, Robert Lee Caudle Sr., his sister Darlita (Shell) Caudle, and one nephew Jordan Lowery.

Left to cherish his loving memories: His mother, Malinda Shannon Caudle of Rock Hill, South Carolina. One daughter Senior Airman Amaya Caudle of Shreveport, Louisiana. Two sons Jonathan Conrad Caudle II & Keyshawn Nelson both of Lancaster, South Carolina. Two brothers: Robert Caudle Jr. (Shelia) of Charlotte, North Carolina and James Caudle (Denise) of Rock Hill, South Carolina. One sister Melissa Reid (Kenneth) of Concord, North Carolina. Three nieces: Ashley Caudle, Sydney Caudle, and Ashanti Caudle, all of Charlotte North Carolina. Six nephews: Jaylen Caudle, Maurice Torrence, Marquis Torrence, all of Charlotte, North Carolina, Keith Caudle and Christopher Caudle of Orlando, Florida, and James Caudle II of Rock Hill, South Carolina. Special Cousins: Tonya Ivey and Claude Roddy Jr. (Tammy) of Monroe, North Carolina; Eric Shannon (Shonda) of Indian Trail, North Carolina; Angela Maske, Travis Cason and Romany Harris all of Charlotte, North Carolina. Four aunts: Mary Farrara and Minnie Maske of Charlotte, North Carolina; Louella Ivey of Monroe, North Carolina; and Josephine Brown of Denver, North Carolina. Four uncles: Thomas Shannon and Henry Shannon of Charlotte, North Carolina; Hubert Shannon (Ruth) of Marshville, North Carolina; and Claude Roddy Sr. of Monroe, North Carolina. His Special Family: Latosha Nelson, Gwen Nelson, Sa'Mya Nelson, and Ta'Nya Nelson all of Lancaster, South Carolina. His special friend Dennis Morrow of Charlotte, North Carolina.

Weep not for me

Weep not for me though I have gone
 Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
 Upon my soul's sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
 There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
 For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
 The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
 In your memory, I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
 Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
 But celebrate my life
