In this time of bereavement, we still say GOD is good all the time and all the time GOD is good. Keep praying for The Family of Terry-Ann Eccleston that God will get glory from our lives. We would like to thank you for your prayers, expression of love, kindness, calls, visits, flowers, and words of encouragement shown during our time of bereavement. ## Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

On April 2, 1988, a beautiful flower sprung from the earth named Terry-Ann Kadene Dunkley, affectionately called Terry. Born unto the Mother Charmaine Palmer (deceased) and Father Leroy Dunkley.

She was the first child for her mother. Terry-Ann was raised in the community of Waterhouse Kingston, Jamaica where she spent her early years growing up with her mother, stepfather, and brothers (Andre, Rushane and Kareem).

Terry-Ann attended the Balmagie Primary School, then graduated and went to Warren Hall High School where she spent a few years before moving to the Tivoli Gardens High School. While attending Tivoli High, she began to lose her vision and that was when she and her family found out that she had a rare condition that affected her nervous system, hence resulting in her moving on to the Salvation Army School for the blind.

In 2007, Terry-Ann lost her mother. However, despite the adversities Terry-Ann faced, she persevered and decided to do her best to make her mom proud even though she was no longer here. She then later met her husband, Steven Eccleston and they got married and had two beautiful children, Steven and Tyra, whom she loved dearly. Terry-Ann and her children then migrated to the United States so that her family could all be in one place.

Terry-Ann was a loving, caring and kindhearted person who helped her family and friends in anyway she could and that is why she would be deeply missed. She was an outspoken, passionate, and an honest person who believed that she could achieve anything she set her mind to as she did not put boundaries on her life despite whatever challenges she faced. She was full of compassion and love for all, especially her family. She was the one to bring people together and spoke with everyone no matter what.

On Saturday, February 20, 2021, our beautiful flower Terry-Ann departed this life after being ill in the hospital for weeks, which has left family and friends heartbroken because she had a heart of gold that makes it so hard to say goodbye.

Terry leaves to cherish her memories: her husband, Steven Eccleston; her two children, Steven and Tyra Eccleston; father and mother 'n' law, Augustus and Girline Eccleston; brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, a host of cousins and many dear friends.

Terry will forever be missed and loved by her family and friends, forever remembered, and never forgotten. Terry, we love you and miss you...sleep well in peace until we meet again.
