*If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane,
I'd walk right up to Heaven
And bring you Home again.*

*A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.*

Obituary

Jeanette Shauntee Potter was born on April 11, 1962, to Robbie Lee Potter and Newell Potter in Oxford, Ohio.

She went to school in Oxford, Ohio.

Shauntee, as most people knew her as, was a caring person who loved cooking, loved music, loved people.

Shauntee is preceded in death by her mother, father, brother, Philip Booker and nephew, Steven Potter.

Shauntee is survived by her sister, Theresa (Stanley) Hart of Middletown, Ohio and a host of family and friends, but there are far too many to name. She made it clear before resting, she loved all of her family and will be missed and loved by family and friends. Rest In Peace.

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
