Obituary

Marguerite Westbrook departed this life on July 7, 2021 to be with the Lord. Marguerite was born February 11, 1942 to Mildred Westbrook and John Taylor in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Marguerite attended Stowe Elementary, Porter Junior High and Central High School. She worked for the Board of Education for two years, until health issues occurred. She loved to read and give advise. She was best known for her wisdom and knowledge that she shared with us daily. This is something we the family will cherish in our hearts for a lifetime. She loved being with her grandchildren and sitting downstairs with her neighbors, where she had so much fun.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, Mildred Westbrook and John Taylor; brother, Jonny Taylor; daughter, Karen Moore; and granddaughter, Marquita Westbrook.

Marguerite leaves to cherish her memories: daughter, Deborah Westbrook; sister, Terri Deyampert Fletcher; granddaughter, Niema Westbrook; great-grandchildren, Malaysia Bell, Jalaysia Bell, Aysia Bell, Aubidon Westbrook, Kahminah Childs and Kingston Childs; and a host of relatives and friends.
