

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that anyone could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all and just thought of us on this day.

We want you to know that our family sincerely thanks everyone for their kind expression of love during our time of bereavement. Please keep us in your closest prayers.

Friends and Family

"The light of your soul shines brightly today. The physical world can not hold you. You are forever present in the hearts and minds of friends and family that love you. We will not let this overwhelming sadness consume the joy you brought us. We will celebrate your legacy, hold the tears of your children and lift their fragile bodies high above the pain consuming them. We will speak your name and confidently parade your likeness to anyone who knows not of your absence. Today is a celebration of you. We remember you as the loving, father, son, uncle, brother cousin, and friend we've come to know you as. Rest In Peace. We love you daddy."

The Obituary

Alfred Junnis Orlando Dillingham, better known to many as Junnis, was born on January 29, 1977, in Hamilton, Ohio, to Michael V. Dillingham and Margaret L. Dillingham-Goodgame. He went home to glory on July 17, 2021.

Junnis was raised in Hamilton and Middletown and he attended Lemon-Monroe High School in Monroe, Ohio.

Junnis loved everyone, especially his family. He is preceded in death by his parents, only sister, Regina (aka Gina) M. Bowens-Dillingham and his baby brother, Matthew I. Dillingham.

Junnis never married, but had many kids whom he loved very much. He leaves to mourn, but cherish and carry on his legacy: daughters, Jordan (aka Nikki) and Margaret (aka Maggie) Dillingham; sons, Maleek Horne, Alfred Dillingham (aka A.J.), Keenan Hutchinson, Tyreik Hutchinson (aka Ty), Blake Owens, Henry Dillingham and William Dillingham; three grandchildren, Abrya, Isaiah and Koreah. He also leaves behind his brothers, Michael A. Dillingham (Judy), Michael S. Dillingham (Jamie) and Cary L. Dillingham (Jenny); and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and many friends.

Junnis will be forever remembered for his big heart and even bigger sense of humor. He was a funny and comical guy who could make anyone laugh. He will be missed dearly.
