*A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.*

*And after a lonely heartache,
And many silent tears;
There's always a beautiful memory,
Of one we loved so dear.*

Obituary

Eulus “Lump” Blackwell was born May 13, 1950, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was the fourth of seven children born to the late Clinton and Annabelle Anderson. Lump attended Cincinnati Public Schools and graduated from Withrow High School in 1970. He also attended Southern Ohio College.

Lump accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Jerriel Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend A.L. Goodwin.

Lump was a member of Prince Hall Masons for over 25 years and thoroughly enjoyed attending the Grand Session and Potentate Balls. He loved engaging in conversations about politics and history. Lump was a massive football fan who always cheered on his Ohio State Buckeyes and Cincinnati Bengals. He had a love for quoting Dolemite and reciting great riddles. He enjoyed dressing up in vibrant colors. Lump had two childhood friends, Howard Edwards and Jimmie Triggs, who remained his friends throughout his life. He also shared an exceptionally special relationship with his nephew, Charles “Tudda” Blackwell.

Anyone who knew Lump was moved by his kindheartedness, tickled by his humor, and lifted by his vivacious personality. If you knew Lump, you knew some of his conversations included colorful phrases like, “come si come sa” and “macht nichts”...yes, that was Lump!

Eulus was preceded in death by his siblings, Harold Massie, Sr. (Carolyn) and Ethel “Baji” Anderson; and niece, Ivy “Muffin” Massie.

Eulus leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Tiffany Morgan (Richard); grandchildren, Bianca Smith, Robert and Ryan Kenibrew; great-grandchildren, Richard Rand, Jr., Eriana and Emmanuel Johnson; siblings, Grace Ann Way (Chief), Deborah Blackwell, Dolly Straughn (Alan) and Albert Anderson; sister-in-law, Carolyn Massie; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
