Life Reflections of John Anthony Prioleau

John Anthony Prioleau, 72, peacefully transitioned with his arms stretched to the sky at home on Sunday, October 10, 2021, in Forest Park, Ohio. John was born in New Rochelle, New York on August 8, 1949, to the proud parents, Charles and Alpheus (Taylor) Prioleau. As a child, John accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at Shiloh Baptist Church of New Rochelle, New York.

John attended New Rochelle, New York educational system and graduated from New Rochelle High School in 1967. After graduating from high school, John moved to Ohio, where he attended the historical black college and university (HBCU), Central State University of Wilberforce, Ohio.

John relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio in 1976, where he married Amelia Ann (Likely) Prioleau. To this union, a daughter, Brandi L. Prioleau and son, Brinson N. Prioleau (Nicole Wise) were born.

John was employed at General Electric until he retired in 2009.

John was kind, humble, loving and supportive to his family and friends. His pastime was chess, checkers, music, debating, photography and a fan of the Cincinnati Bengals. If you asked him who sang a certain song, he could tell you. He loved being with his grandchildren, whether it was teaching them chess, watching them at sports, looking at pictures or hearing about their many accomplishments.

His parents, Charles and Alpheus Prioleau, preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife of 45 years, Amelia (Likely); his daughter, Brandi of Great Mills, Maryland; his son, Brinson (Nicole Wise) of Fairfield, Ohio; his grandchildren, Isaiah Eubanks (Boo-Boo) of Eglin Air Force Base in Florida, Imani Eubanks (Money) of Grayson College in Denison, Texas, Isaac Eubanks (I the intelligent), Ava Prioleau (The Brain) and Olivia Prioleau (The Judge); he also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

*A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.*

*And after a lonely heartache,
And many silent tears;
There's always a beautiful memory,
Of one we loved so dear.*
