Obituary

Cynthia Foster was born September 20, 1948 and raised by John and Verda Seniors. She departed this life on April 13, 2022.

Cynthia grew up in Lincoln Heights on Adams Street with her siblings and was comfortable with her roots there, and never felt the need to plant roots elsewhere. In her younger years, she enjoyed going to the Rec Center to do arts and crafts. She loved to walk and would do so everyday to visit with friends and family, or go to Moxley's to get snacks. She also would say that walking keeps you young and fit. She loved to listen to music and really loved eating a delicious meal.

After living at White Cliff for 20 years, she realized she needed additional assistance. She moved to Veranda Gardens, where Ashley (step-granddaughter) frequently made sure she had her coffee, Big Boy and 3 Musketeers candy bar.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Dorothy, Johnnie Mae, Josephine, Francine and Florence; and brother, Danny.

She leaves to cherish her memory: son, Richard (Charlene); sisters, Patricia, Ethel and Gina; grandchildren, Richard Jr., Phylicia, Ryan, Cinnamon, Raquel, Raven, Rodney and Jasmine; 24 great-grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.
