

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a comforting message,
or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
as any friend would say.

Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,
we thank you so much, whatever the part.

A special thank you to Good Samaritan Hospital, Home of Hearthstone Nursing Home and Scarlet Oaks Nursing Home.

A very special thank you to Mildred Myles and Dwanda Stallworth.

Family and Friends

A precious one from us is gone,

A voice we loved is still.

A place is vacant in our home,

Which never can be filled.

Obituary

Mildred Louise (Bailey) Harris was born on April 17, 1931 in Athens, Georgia to the union of the late Reid Bailey, Sr. and Mary Lou (Williams) Bailey. The youngest daughter of 12 children, Mildred was preceded in death by her parents, all 11 siblings (six sisters and five brothers), her husband, Harold W. Harris and her youngest child, Deborah Ann (Moten) Gatewood.

Mildred graduated from the Athens High and Industrial School in 1948, in Athens, Georgia.

Mildred enjoyed people, rather sitting around playing cards, listening to music, and always dancing or having a meal. She had an unlimited amount of love, laughter and joy to share. Whenever she was around family and friends, know a good time was guaranteed to be had. Her boisterous laugh could always be heard among the crowd's chatter. There was no doubt Mildred was present.

Leaving to celebrate her life are: her children, Ernest and Freida; four grandchildren, LeQuita A. Greer (Kendall), Antwan J. Moten, Tionna D. Gatewood and Javon K. Moten; several great-grandchildren; one son-in-law, Calvin R. Gatewood; one aunt, Minnie Smith of Spring, Texas; four sisters-in-law, Mildred Moten (Lawrence) of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Mary Joy Bailey (Reid Jr.), Joanne Bailey (John Sr.) of Chicago, Illinois and Ozell Bailey (Joe Sr.) of Cincinnati, Ohio; many, many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
