

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a comforting message,
or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
as any friend would say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
we thank you so much, whatever the part.

Obituary

Roger “Bud” Jordan was born in Fort Valley, Georgia on May 14, 1944 to the late Lois and Roger Jordan, Sr. Roger graduated from Taft High School in 1961. Roger had a passion for playing the drums and was an integral part of the Taft High School Band. After graduating, Roger worked for the famous and popular club known as the “Playboy Club”. After which, he joined the U.S. Air Force, stationed in Wichita, Kansas, where he completed his commitment of 4 years of service.

Roger was very fond of Jazz and had the opportunity to sit in and play with a few bands and showcase his drumming skills. Roger was a loving brother, cousin and uncle. He was a very positive man and loved to spend time with his family. He was a great storyteller and loved to tell stories about his younger days and simpler times.

Roger was preceded in death by two brothers and three sisters, Milton Jackson, Jr. (Joella), Herman Jackson, Sr., Patricia Jordan, Luddie Mae Simmons and Jannie Ruth Tubbs (Lester); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

*A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.*

*But after a lonely heartache
And many silent tears;
There's always a beautiful memory,
Of one we loved so dear.*

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
