

To all my loved ones whom I am leaving behind, don't worry about me, because my heavenly Father has set me free. Please be forever grateful and thankful for the happiness we have shared. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. My life's been full, I've enjoyed much. This place was never meant to be a permanent home for any of us. Through all the pain and heart aches give praise and honor to my father for my 59 years.

TRIBUTE IN MEMORY OF

My Auntie

Well, Wanda, no pic is necessary because everyone knows you. Just know that your nephew will greatly miss you and will forever love you. Know that I will hold the fort down until my last breath. I know that you are at peace with our God, the Father, our Savior Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit is still here on earth, watching over me and helping me transform into the man the Lord intended for me to be. We had our ups and downs, but my love for you has not and will never change. You give my granny a big old hug for me and know that one day my time will come, just hope its not yet.
 I know the Lord has a great purpose of me and my life and I intend to fulfill that purpose.
 I love you always and forever.

Your Nephew, Kory Jenkins

I love you, Auntie Wanda.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Your words have comforted us,
 Your support has strengthened us,
 And your love has sustained us.

We extend our deepest thanks to you for your kindness during our bereavement. We appreciate it more that words can express, and it will always be remembered.

Special thanks to Dr. Grubb and the Dialysis Staff for all you have done for our sister.

Wanda's Life

WANDA LEE JENKINS was born on July 16, 1962, to the late Leo Jenkins, Jr., and Frankie Mae Miller Jenkins Austin in Brunswick, Georgia. She received her formal education in the Glynn County Public School System in Brunswick, Georgia. Wanda graduated from Brunswick High School in 1980. She was employed by Bed Bath and Beyond.

She began her Christian journey at St. Andrews CME Church. Wanda started her service at an early age as a junior usher and youth choir member. As an adult, she continued to serve in the church choir as a faithful songbird for Christ. Wanda lifted praises to the Lord until her final breath.

She worked diligently in the hospitality industry for several years, including at several hotels, World Insurance Services, and Bed, Bath & Beyond until her health failed.

Wanda had a love for helping those in need. She enjoyed having a good time with anyone she met. She had a gift for helping those in need. This gave her great joy.

God's plans are not always our plans. When the angels came for her on Wednesday, April 20, 2022, at Southeast Georgia Health Systems, it was much sooner than we planned. We will brave the grief that comes and try to understand.

She was preceded in death by her father and mother, Leo Jenkins, Jr., and Frankie Jenkins Austin; stepfather, Vernon Austin; sister, Luretha Jenkins; niece, Selina Miller; grandmothers, Maude Pickette Jones and Annie McCloud Mathis; and uncle, Reverend J.O. Miller.

She leaves to cherish her memories: brothers, Johnny W. Myers III and Leo Jenkins III of Brunswick, Georgia; sisters, Annette Denise Miller of Essex-JCT, Vermont, Glonda Lee Jenkins of Brunswick, Georgia, and Brenda Marie (Darnell) Blackmon of Tulsa, Oklahoma; stepsiblings, Cheryl Kennedy, Vernon Kennedy, Barry Austin, Larry Austin, Joyce Austin, and Quinton Jones; uncles, Charles Miller; aunts, Bernice (Alfred) Johnson, Laura (Leroy) Dumas, Barbara Dawson, and Mary Miller; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, goddaughters, and cousins.

Special love for her church family, work family, and all of her amazing and caring friends, whom she had known practically all of her life. You know who you are, and may you all forever cherish the memories of our beloved sister and your beloved friend.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Minister: Let us unite in this historic confession of the Christian Faith.

All: I believe in God, the Father, Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ His only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day He arose from the dead, He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
