

Don't Cry for Me

Don't cry for me.
I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now,
And this is where I'll stay.
Don't cry for me.
I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy,
And try to stay strong.
Don't cry for me.
It was just my time,
But I will see you someday,
On the other side.
Don't cry for me.
I am not alone.
The angels are with me
To welcome me home.
Don't cry for me,
For I have no fear.
All my pain is gone,
And Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me.
This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you,
When we meet again.

Acknowledgements

My family and I want to express the highest amount of gratitude and appreciation for all the support, calls, encouraging words, and just a prayer during this time of grief and unexpected life change made due to the departure from this world that God saw fit to bestow upon us in the hours of May 2, 2022, the day Wayne Morris Tyson gained his ticket into Heaven. I thank everyone from the bottom of my heart for keeping me focused and reminding me that I am not alone in this world. To the New Zion Baptist Church congregation, thank you all for allowing us to lay to rest our beloved Wayne Tyson inside your place of worship, and fellowship with open arms. God bless! In closing, I want to thank my dad, Wayne Tyson, for being the happy, loving, down to earth, respectful, God-fearing man he was and will always be through me. He will always live on, because I will never forget what we experienced together, and I'll continue to create more good memories for us to laugh about when we meet again, because this is not Goodbye, only a "I'll talk with you later" like you would say.

Obituary

"We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord."

II Corinthians 5:8

As you celebrate the setting of my sun, may you always remember the times we've shared and the memories that we've made. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding guard your hearts and your minds through Christ Jesus. I want each of you to remember my smile, which was as bright as the stars in the sky. Remember my laughter, which was like the beautiful sound of ocean water. Through all the pain and suffering, remember the joy that I brought into your lives.

A child is a beautiful gift from God Almighty. On July 4, 1958, in New York, Naomi White was blessed with a handsome baby boy. Yes, Wayne Tyson made his grand entrance into the world, debuting as the patriarch of the family. From his birth until his demise, he lived out the true meanings of a family patriarch.

Wayne received his formal education at Glynn Academy in Brunswick, Georgia. He accepted Christ as his Savior and was united with New Zion Baptist Church, where he served as an usher.

Wayne M. Tyson enlisted into the United States Army on November 2, 1977. He was honorably discharged on January 21, 1983. He was employed by Burger King as a Manager for twelve years.

In his leisure, he enjoyed spending time with family, working, helping others, being a full-time granddad and father, and watching sports. He was an avid Georgia Bulldogs fan!!

Wayne M. Tyson was blessed with two sons, Wayne Tyson, Jr., and Jajuan Tyson. Wayne Morris Tyson departed this life on May 2, 2022.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Naomi White, aunt, Annie Dell, uncle, Eugene Tyson, Sr., and cousin, Eugene Tyson, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memories: sons, Wayne Tyson, Jr., and Jajuan Tyson; stepdaughter, Linda Michelle Graham; stepson, Michael Graham; beloved granddaughter, Mia Janelle Tyson; daughter-in-law, Latrice Walker; three step-granddaughters; three step-grandsons; two step-great-granddaughters; and a host of beloved cousins and friends.
