Thought and Reflections

Losing a sibling is different; my oldest sister tried her hardest to keep us together and bring us closer. As the oldest, she felt it was her job. My sister was always there for me. I remember the first day we met, it was like love at first sight, lol! As my other siblings call me her favorite. She always treated me like a baby because I'm the youngest. Kris would always say, "I'm the most level-headed one."

I would always tell her, "Yeah." I'm definitely going to miss you, Sis. I love you so much.

Your Brother, James Kinemore II

To the moon and back, I'll ride with you! I heard you loud and clear. Only the real recognizes the real. I've seen God in you. Just made it home from leaving your room where you were found, and

I heard everything. You told me loud and clear, "I'll carry you with me until my last breath." Rest in peace, my sister, "Baby D." I know you're with your boy, Rodney O. Rollin. I will hold you down as long as I'm still breathing. Give my granny and Aunt Wanda a hug for me. Love you!!

Acknowledgement

Words of gratitude seem so inadequate for all the kindness that has been shown to our family. We thank you for the encouraging visits, the comforting calls, the lovely cards, the beautiful flowers, and the sincere words of sympathy. Whatever expression of love you chose, the message reached us, and our hearts were warmed. We are finding strength in knowing that Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. May God bless you richly for blessing us.

Obituary

There's an open gate at the end of the road through which each must go alone; and there is a light we cannot see; our Father claims His own. Beyond the gate our loved one finds happiness and rest; and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best.

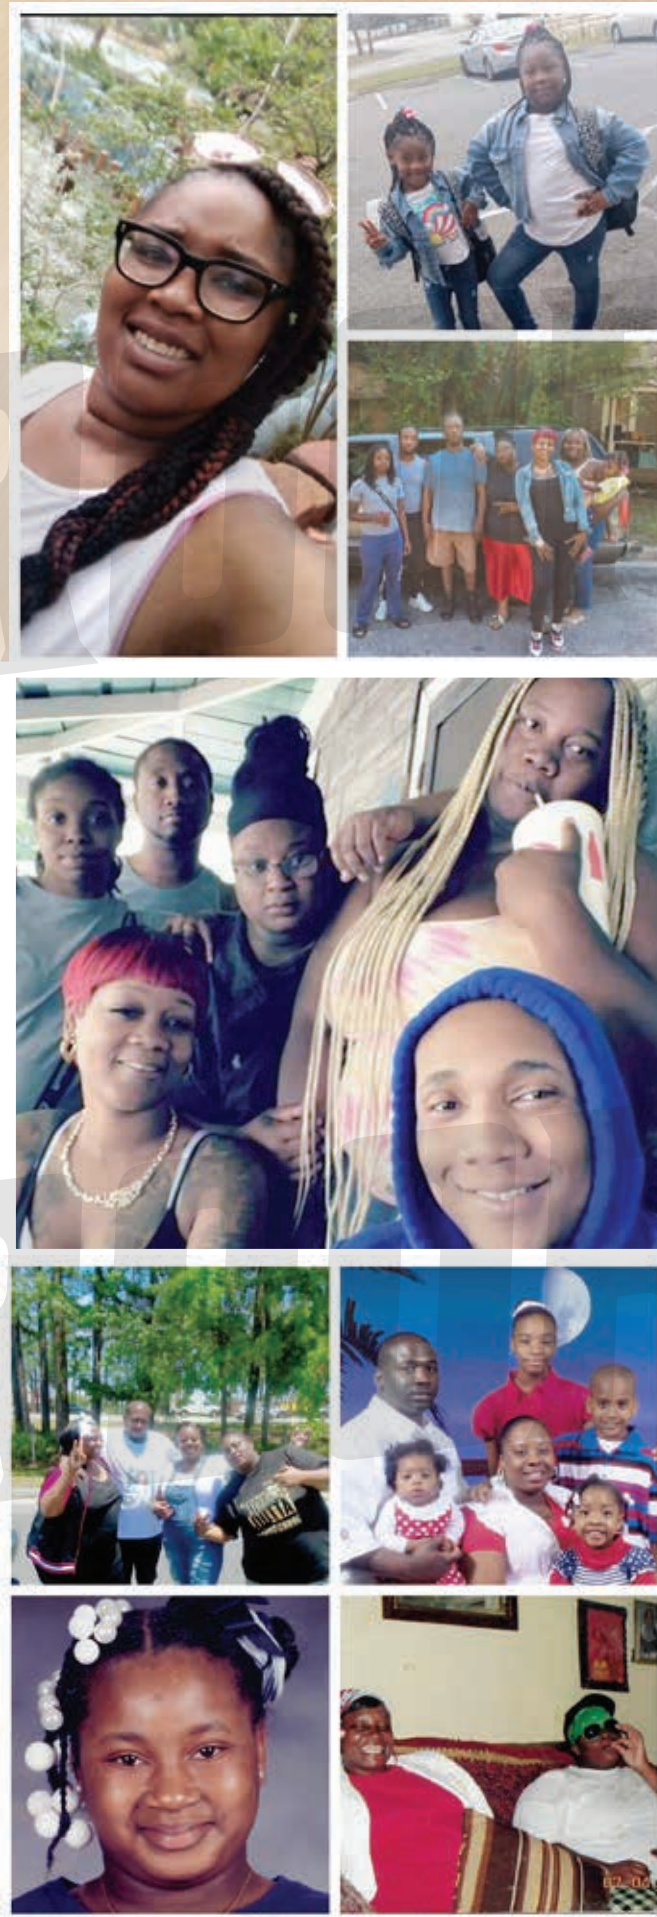

Krishonna Kinemore's life began on February 3, 1990, in Brunswick, Georgia. She was the daughter of Glonda Jenkins and James B. Kinemore, Jr. She was educated in the Glynn County public school system and furthered her education at Strayer University in Washington, D.C.

Krishonna accepted Christ as her Savior as a youth and was united with Saint Andrews Christian Methodist Episcopal Church where she served as a youth usher and chorister. She was employed by Miller's Ale House in Davenport, Florida, as a cook until her untimely death. In her leisure, she enjoyed reading books and cooking for her family and friends.

Krishonna Yasheka Kinemore departed this life on May 21, 2022. She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Frankie Mae Jenkins, Austin, and Leo Jenkins, Sr.; paternal grandparents, Alberta and James Kinemore, Sr.; great-grandparents, Annie McCloud and Maude Pickette Jones; aunts, Wanda Jenkins and Glenda Williams; and uncles, James Otis Miller, John Hodge, Sr., and Nathaniel Hodge, Sr.

Krishonna leaves an empty space in the hearts of: her parents, Glonda Jenkins and James Kinemore, Jr., both of Brunswick, Georgia; siblings, Kory Jenkins, Sawanna Murray (LeCarl Fields, Sr.), Jalisha Marion, James Kinemore III, Ashley Stanley, Quayshena Anderson, Quaymon Simmons, and Latoya Culver; aunts and uncles, Annette Miller of Essex Junction, Vermont, Brenda Jenkins and Darnell Blackmon, both of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Raymond Hodge of Miami, Florida, and Margaret Butler, Anthony Greene, Johnny Myers, and Leo Jenkins III, all of Brunswick, Georgia; great-aunts, Bernice (Alfred) Johnson, Laura (Leroy) Dumas, Barbara Dawson, and Mary Miller; great-uncle, Charles Miller; nieces and nephews, Sha'Koria Jackson, D'Morea Murray, LeKarria Fields, Danyelle Fields, LeCarl Fields, Jr., Genesis, Kristin, and Ava; great-niece, Samoria Johnson; a host of other relatives and friend.
