

A FALLEN LIMB

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.*

*Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.*

*Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Sincere Thanks

The family of Deacon Andrew (AJ) Mercer would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation to you for your prayers, expressions of love, and ongoing support that have been shared with each of us. We found peace as believers, knowing that his life was lived so gracefully and as reflection of the work that only God can do and through us. Deacon Andrew's legacy will forever be cherished, for it is part of who we are and with that, we find solace in these moments, comfort in this time of loss, and joy in the promise of new life. May God continue to bless and keep us one and all with goodness and mercy in our fellowship together.

A TRIUMPHANT JOURNEY

– 103 BLESSED YEARS –

The clock of life is wound but once. God didn't give any man here on earth the power to control the clock of life. The clock of life for Andrew Julian Mercer began on April 5, 1919, in Metter, Georgia, when God blessed Mamie Johnson and Paul Mercer, Jr., with a handsome baby boy. He was the oldest of three children born into a family which taught the importance of hard work and integrity. From his birth to his demise, Andrew lived out the true meaning of a family patriarch.

Mr. Andrew, as he was affectionately called by his family and friends, was an exceptional individual. As a young man, Andrew received Christ as his Savior and served faithfully as deacon and chairman deacon. Throughout his Christian walk, he has been a member of Bright Star Baptist Church, Saint James Baptist Church, and Bethel Baptist, where he served until his health began to decline.

Mr. Andrew was gainfully employed at Hercules, Inc., for 37 years as supervisor, until he retired. He was a Masonic member for very long time.

Mr. Andrew enjoyed spending time with his family, cooking, gardening, and sharing wisdom and knowledge with everyone he encountered. He was also known as, "Mr. Fix It."

"To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord" (II Corinthians 5:8). On Tuesday, June 14, 2022, Deacon Andrew (AJ) Mercer answered the summon from his Heavenly Father. He was preceded in death by mother, Mamie Johnson; father, Paul Mercer, Sr.; daughter, Pearlie Moring; sister, Eunice Mercer Johnson; and brother, Paul Mercer, Jr.

Deacon Andrew (AJ) Mercer leaves to cherish and rejoice his memories: son, Anthony (Angie) Johnson; devoted and beloved nieces and nephews, James and Brenda Mitchell, and Patricia Ramsey; granddaughter, Ja'Lynn Walker; and a host of grandchildren, bonus children, great-nieces and nephews, cousins, and dear friends.
