

It's Gonna Be Alright

*I was told by an angel,
So calmly and true,
"It's gonna be alright."
Her faith never changing,
her smile never fading,
It's gonna be alright.
Her health unprogressive,
Yet her answer still unwavering,
It's gonna be alright.
A love so boundless, a heart so pure,
She made her way home.
Take comfort in knowing that one day,
That gentle angel will greet us at the pearly gates
With a smile so timeless and a hug so benign
As she looks to you and says,
"It's always been alright."*

Reflections

"We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord."

II Corinthians 5:8

As you celebrate the end of my life's journey, I pray that each of you will find comfort in knowing that a loving and compassionate God knows what's best for each of us. Although my life appears to be brief, I've lived an exciting and full life. We've shared so many fun memories, countless hours of laughter, and so much love, so keep these memories within each of your hearts and minds. Use them to comfort the pain when you start to miss my presence. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding take away all tears. Don't forget all the laughter we shared, which was like the roaring thunder on a rainy day. Through all the pain and suffering, remember the joy that I brought into your lives. Eternal life has a joyful beginning, but sometimes it can be a painful ending for those loved ones we leave behind. I don't want my exit from this life to be painful for any of my family and friends, so begin each day with my smile.

The joy that Patrice Jackson brought into this world began on December 21, 1970, when God gave this beautiful soul to Nathaniel Jackson, Sr., and Phyllis (Wilburn) Jackson in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Patrice Jackson received her education at Brunswick High School in Brunswick, Georgia, and furthered her education at Roosevelt Warm Springs Vocational Rehabilitation in Warm Springs, Georgia. She accepted Christ as her Savior at Saint Andrews Holiness Church in Brunswick, Georgia, at the age of 13, which is where she served as an usher. She was employed by the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center as a food server for 26 years. In her leisure, she enjoyed traveling, watching WWE wrestling, and spending time with her family.

Patrice Jackson departed this life on June 22, 2022. She was preceded in death by her father, Nathaniel Jackson, Sr.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her mother, Phyllis Jackson of Brunswick, Georgia; brother, Nathaniel (Divina) Jackson, of Brunswick, Georgia; sisters, Thara (Eugene) Moody and Deana Jackson, both of Jacksonville, Florida; nieces, Constance Sequin of Arkansas, Leslie Jackson of Kansas, Katrina Jackson of Brunswick, Georgia, and Kaya Moody of Jacksonville, Florida; nephews, Patrick Jackson of Brunswick, Georgia, and Christopher Fulks of Jacksonville, Florida; great-niece, Nola K. Lee of Arkansas; and many other relatives and friends.
