

In Loving Memory of a Special Grandad

Grandad, We're leaving this little card
And these heartfelt words to show
How much we love and miss you...
More than you could know.
Even though We've lost you,
You're not that far away.
Our hearts are full of memories;
You're in our thoughts each day.
You were so kind and caring
And a truly loyal friend.
You were always there for us,
Right until the very end.
Life without you is not the same,
And sometimes we feel sad,
But we know we've been truly blessed
That you were our Grandad.

Love Always, Your Grandchildren

Our Lil. Big Brother, L.J.

Dear L.J.,

You were our lil, big brother, how do we say goodbye
As we wipe the tears from our eyes?
Yes, you loved your sisters;
The bond we shared was more than special, it was strong,
And our hearts are where it will always belong.
We never thought that night would be our last time together;
The times, memories, and love will be forever.
We know it's never goodbye, only see you later,
For you have worked for such a time that is so much greater.
God's plan is not our plan. You sleep on, our lil, big brother,
And we will keep doing the best we can.
Forever your sisters,
Carrie, Nancy, Shirley, and Mary

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God was going to call your name.
In life, we loved you dearly;
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone;
Part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories;
Your love is still our guide.
Although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Love Always, Your Wife Loretta

Reflections

On Saturday, September 10, 2022, the one we loved so dearly, LINDSEY JAMES WRIGHT, SR., ended his earthly journey and entered into his resting place at the age of 67 at Hampton Regional Hospital in Hampton, South Carolina.

LJ, the son of the late Janie Mae Singleton Ruth Wright and Brooker T. Wright, was born on February 9, 1955, in Hampton, South Carolina, where he spent his entire life. During his youth, he attended Second Thankful Baptist Church. He was educated in the public schools of Hampton County District II and graduated from Estill High School in 1975 and furthered his education at Denmark Technical College.

After graduating, the next chapter of his life included marrying the love of his life, Ms. Loretta Johnson of Estill, South Carolina, on May 26, 1979. This union was blessed with three beautiful children. One daughter, Angel Wright, preceded him in death. LJ worked his early years with Deloach Farms, Falcon Industries, and The Greenery as a foreman. In his later years, LJ operated his own lawn care service. On February 24, 2018, LJ and Loretta were re-joined in matrimony with a host of family and friends in attendance.

Lindsey James Wright, Sr., leaves a loving and devoted family to cherish precious memories: his loving wife, Loretta J. Wright of Varnville, South Carolina; one spoiled daughter, Leslie (Eric) Hutchinson of Varnville, South Carolina; one extremely spoiled son, Lindsey (Jennifer) Wright, Jr., of Lexington, South Carolina; four sisters, Carrie Cohen, Shirley Brown, Mary Ann Duncan, all of Nixville, South Carolina, and Annette Rowe of Savannah, Georgia; three brothers, John H. (Mary) Wright of Georgetown, South Carolina, Ernie (Iris) Council of Raleigh, North Carolina, and Paul (Anne) Warren, of Estill, South Carolina; sisters-in-law, Eloise (David) Myers and Mary Jones, both of Savannah, Georgia, Dr. Rose (Herman) Williams of Pooler, Georgia, and Sophia Council of Hampton, SC; brothers-in-law, Burdie (Cynthia) Johnson of Williston, South Carolina, and Apostle Dublin (Audrey Elaine) Johnson, Jr., of Bloomingdale, Georgia; seven grandchildren, Ny'Asia Wright, Tyler Hutchinson, Taylor Hutchinson, Kamryn Wright, Trishtan Hutchinson, Macen Wright, and Mia Cohen; one special granddaughter, Jasmine McGraw; two godsons, John Cohen, Jr., and Deshaun Early; honorary mother, Earline Williams; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, church family, and spiritual children.

A lifetime of memories will forever live on in the hearts of his family and friends who were blessed by God to know him. We will stroll down memory lane for the unforgettable times where we laughed and the few times where we cried because a lifetime of memories will never be enough.

Our Loving Father

God took the strength of a mountain and the majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun, the calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature and the comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages and the power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring and the faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity and the depth of a family need,
Then God combined all these qualities.
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so He called it... 'Dad!'

Love Always, Your Children Leslie & Lindsey
