THE LIFE

Halcy Sanaa Adkins

From April 30, 2023, to the end of time, our lives have been changed forever, but Heavenly Father, we understand that your will must be done. We may not understand your decision, but we refuse to be ungrateful and selfish because of all the joy that Haley brought into our lives. During her brief time on earth, we sheltered her with tenderness and loved her while we may, but we understand now, that it was not your plan to let her stay. As a family, we find comfort in knowing that a loving and compassionate God knows what's best for each of us, although; her life appears to be brief, we've shared so many fun memories, countless hours of laughter and so much love. When we start to miss you, we will remember your radiant smile, and how you radiated each of our lives. When the tears start to flow, we will remember the joy that you brought into our lives when God gave Anthony Adkins and Aliceson Gadson an amazing little angel on February 11, 2015 in Beaufort, South Carolina that they named Haley Sanaa Adkins.

The highlight of Haley's life was school. She loved and enjoyed attending Estill Elementary School in Estill, SC, where she was a 2nd grader. Her mother understood the importance of raising up Haley to love God. Haley attended her family church, The Deliverance Church of Christ, under the leadership of Apostle Frances A. Nix. Full of life, Haley enjoyed watching videos on TikTok, where she even took a liking to making videos. Haley absolutely loved spending time with her family and friends, getting her hair done, playing with make-up, particularly her lip gloss.

Through all the happiness we've ever known, we'll ever grateful for her stay. When the angels called her much sooner than we'd planned, we will brace the bitter grief that comes and try to understand. Haley Sanaa Adkins departed this life on April 30, 2023. She was preceded in death by: great grandmother, Carrie Gadson; aunts, Agnus Miller and Laura Blake; uncle, George Adkins; and cousin, Cedric Adkins.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her mother, Aliceson Gadson; father, Anthony Adkins; sister, Jayla Adkins; brother, Jalen Adkins; grandparents, Gina (Terrence) Jordan, Alice Garvin, Anthony Taylor; great grandmother, Elizabeth Ferguson; aunts, Shanae Taylor, Seneinka (Thaddeus) Jones, and Patricia Adkins; uncles, David Taylor, Johnathon Taylor, Maurice Gadson, Jermain Gadson, Andrey Gadson, Sammy (Chinise) Adkins, John Adkins, and Marquel Scott; Godmother, Kameka Roberts; a host of great aunts, great uncles, cousins, family, friends, Estill Elementary School Family, and Thee Deliverance Church Family.

I ONLY HAVE A PICTURE

*I only have a picture now,
A frozen piece of time,
To remind me of how it was
When you were here and mine.*

*How much I miss you being here,
I really cannot say.
The ache is deep inside my heart,
And never goes away.*

*I hear it mentioned often,
That time will heal the pain,
But if I'm being honest,
I know it will always remain.*

*I need to feel you constantly,
To get me through the day.
I loved you so very much.
I just don't understand,
Why God took you away?*

*The angels came and took you,
That really wasn't fair.
They took my one and only son,
My future life, my heir.*

*I hope you're watching from above,
At the daily tasks I do,
And let there be no doubt at all,
I will always love you.*

Your Mother Aliceson

DEAR GOD,

Please Take Care of Our Little Girl

*Dear God, please take care of our little girl,
The one with that beautiful smile and lots of curls.*

She was special, as you should know.

We really didn't want to let her go.

She touched the hearts of everyone she knew.

Letting her go was so hard to do.

Her smile could brighten up the darkest room.

We wish you didn't have to take her so soon.

Could you sit and rock her and read her a story?

She's probably afraid; please tell her don't worry.

Tell her mommy and dad loves her and wishes she could be here,

But it won't be for many more years.

She loves to sing all kinds of songs.

Please tell her that she did no wrong.

Would you comfort her and hold her in your arms tight?

And tell her she is missed every day and night.

Please tell her she is loved so very dear.

We'll say it every day for her to hear.

Her short life on earth is now completed.

For lessons I'm sure you felt we needed

Love Always

THE LIFE OF JA'VONDREY LAMONT GADSON

If I knew that my life was going to be this brief, there are so many things that I would have done differently. I would have told my family members, especially my baby, mother, and grandmother how much I loved them. I probably would have said it even more. Don't worry about me, I am leaving behind my beautiful son for each of you to love, so take very good care of him. I have gone to a place, where all mankind must go. It is a place beyond an open gate. All have been invited and many have been chosen. This place holds an eternal promise. I have gone to a place of everlasting peace. This is a place where there is no pain or sorrow, and teardrops have ceased. Life has a joyful beginning but sometimes it can be a painful ending for those loved ones, we leave behind. I don't want my exit from this life to be painful for any of my family and friends. Remember my beginning and not my tragic ending. Remember all the laughter we had and the joy that I brought to each of your lives.

My life began in Beaufort, South Carolina, on March 23, 2003, when God gave my amazing mother, Aliceson Si Gadson a beautiful bundle of joy that she named Ja'Vondrey Lamont Gadson. My mother always placed emphasis on education, and it was a proud moment, when her firstborn received his high school diploma from Estill High School in 2021. After graduation, I entered the workforce because I always loved working with my hands. I was employed by Cleland Site Prep, Inc of Ridgeland, SC. I held the position of machine operator and worked for Cleland, a little over a year and a half.

Thanks to my mom for believing in Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Ja'Vondrey accepted Christ as his savior during an alter call at his home church. He was a member of Thee Deliverance Church under the leadership of Apostle Frances A. Nix.

To my family members and friends when the tears start to flow, remember all those things that made me happy and never forget my beautiful smile. My life was brief, but I enjoyed life to the fullest. Don't forget how much I enjoyed sports, basketball being my sport of choice. I also loved music, dancing, and being a jokester. I was an avid Lakers' and Patriots' fan. Use these memories and don't be angry with God for taking me. God doesn't make any mistakes; he takes the young and the old.

We are in this world for a limited time. This world was never meant to be our home, we are just passing through on our way to a mansion that God has prepared for us. Ja'Vondrey Lamont Gadson took his passage to eternity on April 30, 2023. He was preceded in death by great grandmother, Carrie Gadson; aunts, Agnus Miller and Laura Blake; and Godfather, Johnny Merryweather.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his son, Jhauri Lamont Gadson; mother, Aliceson Gadson; grandmother, Alice Gadson-Garvin; aunts, Seneca (Thaddeus) Jones, and Angie Isham; uncles, Maurice Gadson, Jermain Gadson, and Andrey Gadson; Godparents, Gerod Mole and Gail Mitchell; close cousins, Alphonzo Moton, Tamia Isham, and Lyric Jones; a host of great aunts, great uncles, cousins, friends, EHS Class of 2021, and Thee Deliverance Church Family.
