*Reflection of Life
For the Late*

Carrie Lou Washington Davis

Today, we have assembled in the spirit of love and with sincere thankfulness to celebrate the life of Carrie Lou Washington Davis. Truly her presence shall surely be missed, but the endless memories shall forever be embellished within the core of our hearts. Carrie Lou Washington Davis was born on September 16, 1939 to the late George Washington and the late Hattie Mae Priester Washington in Hampton County, South Carolina. She surrendered to the summon of her Creator on Tuesday, September 25, 2018, Pruitt Nursing Home, Estill, South Carolina.

She attended North District Training School. She was also married to the late Samuel Davis, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories: one sister, Nora B. Washington, Yemassee, SC; one brother, James Washington, Fairfax, SC; two sisters-in-law, Annie Washington, Cummings, SC and Margaret Davis, Yemassee, SC; several nieces, nephews, host of cousins and friends; special nieces, Diane Doctor, Varnville, SC and Shenique Latrell Riley, Hampton, SC.

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
her journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.*

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

*Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.*

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.
