

We Miss You

*Our hearts still ache with sadness, and many tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.*

*We hold you close
within our hearts,
and there you will remain,
to walk with us throughout our lives
until we meet again.*

LETTER FROM Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me,

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me, too.*

When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

"A Blessing FROM ABOVE"

Heavenly Father, we understand that your will must be done. We refuse to be ungrateful and selfish for all the joy that our bundle of joy brought. During his brief time on earth, we sheltered him with tenderness and loved him while we may. As a family, we are thankful for the happiness we've known and forever grateful for AJ's stay. When your angels came for him, much sooner than we planned, we'll brave the grief that comes and try to understand. God gave Antonio Lamont Taylor, Jr., to Tarshish Renee Taylor and Antonio Lamont Taylor, Sr., on January 22, 2021, at Baptist Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina, and it was God's decision to take this lent child back with him on March 8, 2021.

Antonio, Jr., leaves to cherish his brief memories: loving parents, Tarshish Renee Taylor and Antonio Lamont Taylor, Sr., of Swansea, South Carolina; grandparents, Mittie Mae, and Abraham James, late Johnnie Lee Maxwell, Shirley, and Alonzo Bouknight, and Anthony I Butler, Sr.; three brothers; one sister; six uncles; two aunts; godparents, Roger and Julia Glover; and a host of other relatives.
