

*When I was young, I was restless.
I have seen the World Turn;
Now I am on the Edge of Night,
And I'm searching for Tomorrow.
But the Guiding Light will lead me home*

Invictus

*Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.
In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.
Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.
It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul.*

Obituary

“And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying. Neither shall there be any more pain. For the former things are passed away.”

Revelation 21:4

Today, we find peace and understanding because we realize that God is close to the brokenhearted, and he comforts those whose spirits are crushed. McArthur is now resting in the arms of God Almighty, set free, missed, but never forgotten. He is now at peace because no one is guaranteed life, which is why each moment is so precious.

Dr. McArthur Griffin was born on April 16, 1951, to the late Samuel and Minnie P. Griffin in Jewel, Georgia. Dr. McArthur Griffin earned a bachelor’s degree from Mercer University in Macon, Georgia. After graduation, he furthered his education at the College of Optometry in Memphis, Tennessee, and later became an optometrist.

Dr. McArthur Griffin accepted Christ as his Savior and was united with St. Paul AME.

Dr. McArthur Griffin was united in holy matrimony with Marsha Williams on September 19, 1975, in Brunswick, Georgia. Their union was blessed with one daughter, Jessica Griffin.

He was employed by Visioncheck as an Optometrist.

Dr. McArthur Griffin departed this life on September 26, 2021. He was preceded in death by his parents, Samuel and Minnie Pearl Griffin.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his daughter, Jessica Griffin; grandson, Noah Alexander James Waklatsi-William; sisters, Theola Sears, Marie Mack (Donald), and Betty Nobles (Theodore); brothers, Reverend Jonny Griffin (Annette) and Ron Griffin (Cathy); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
