

How Do I Say Goodbye

How do I begin to say goodbye. Telling the kids was the hardest part. They won't be able to get excited about what car you're about to pull up in. When Justice was little, you made sure she had new shoes every week. I am going to miss the two of us laughing at Jahanna sneaking cash app request from you to buy snacks. Trey wanting to smell like you. Juwann came to you for punishment. You came with clothes and shoes. Jasmine is still Jasmine. I am going to miss being able to pick up the phone to call you. It's impossible to say goodbye to you.

Love You Always,
Your Twin

Dad,

Dad, many days have passed by since the terrible news. It all doesn't seem real to us. I just wish that you had a little more time to enjoy being with your family and loved ones, because that's all you ever worked for. It's not just me when I say this, but you've changed many lives and inspired others to become their very best. It's only right as your son that I do the same and take care of our family. As life progresses, I wanted you to know that your family and friends love you, but most importantly, we were proud of you.

My King

To the love of my life, my love at first sight, my high school sweetheart, my husband, the father of our six kids, you were my king. You were a businessman, an entrepreneur, a chef, a big brother, and a great friend to many. Colin, being with you for twenty-three years was nearly not enough time for us. We had so much more to look forward to. It's going to be hard moving forward without you, but I will always love you. I thank you for all the hard work, sacrifices made, sleepless nights, being tired before you get home from working hard, and stopping by the store to make sure you picked up a treat for the kids. We will be forever grateful for you. You did what you always wanted for your family, leaving your legacy for us to follow. We thank you! We love you and will truly miss you Forever.

Your Loving Wife,
Kenneshia

Obituary

May the works I have done speak for me. All that I have ever done is to help others to better their lives through encouragements and advice. When I am resting in my grave and there is nothing that can be said, may the works that I have done speak for me. May the life that I live speak for me. My mistakes God will forgive; may the life that I live speak for me.

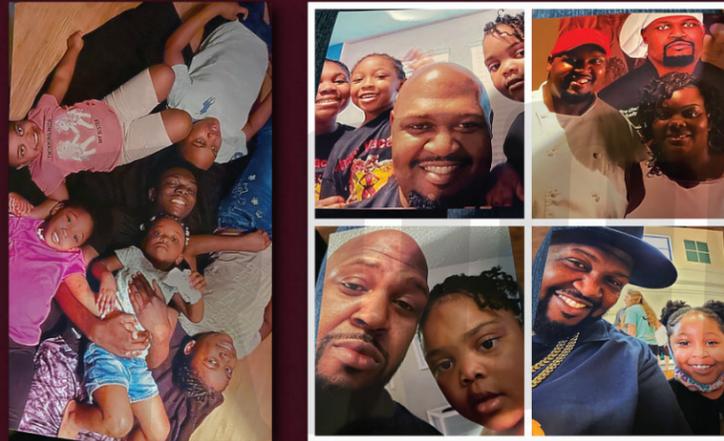

Colin Antonio Eady, Sr., was born on November 29, 1979, in Charleston, South Carolina, to the late Corean Eady and the late Arthur Greene, Sr. Colin received his education in the public schools of Hampton District 2. He was a 1999 graduate of Estill High School. After graduating, he enlisted in the United States Army in September 1999 and received an honorable discharged.

Colin's mission in life was to provide a better life for his children and to take care of his queen, which is how he referred to his wife, Kennesha, so he worked multiple jobs. At the time of his death, he had been employed by Bloom at Belfair as an executive chef for many years. He also worked for several other companies: Pre-Paid Legal, Prime America, Visalus, FES, FOREX, and Rich Master Class. He was an entrepreneur with a line of very good seasonings. In his leisure time, he enjoyed helping, motivating, and teaching other people how to better their lives. The joy of his life was showing off his cooking skills.

God knows what's best for us, even when we do not know what's better for ourselves. God knew Colin's time on Earth was completed, so he sent his angels to reclaim his child on October 19, 2021. He was preceded in death by: his parents, brother, Arthur Greene, Jr., and a sibling, baby Eady.

Colin leaves to cherish his memories and continue his legacy: his loving and amazing wife, Kennesha Hutchinson Eady; six children, Colin Jr., Saniah, Calen, Kayla, Samya, and Samari Eady, all of Beaufort, SC; four sisters, his twin, Colleen (Antayvis) Eady of Rivershill, SC, Rebbeca (Lionell) of Pooler, GA, Ashley (Kwame) of Jonesville, SC, and Angela Greene of Columbia, SC; two brothers, Thomas Hutchinson of Garnett, SC, and Robert Jenkins of Point South, SC; stepmother, Angela Ford Greene of Beaufort, SC; three aunts, Anna Eady of Garnett, SC, Jacqueline Eady (Tim) Lee of Port Wentworth, GA, and Valerie Eady of Columbia, SC; one uncle, James Eady of Rincon, GA; mother- and father-in-law, Sara and Harry Hutchinson of Estill, SC; three sisters-in-law, Peggy (Mark) of Atlanta, GA, Latravia (Stephen), and Laqwanda Hutchinson, all of Estill, SC; the love of his life, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; two special friends, Diedra Smalls and Jessica Washington; and very special men in his life, James Eady, the late John Eady, and Mr. Bennie Hazel.
