Weep Not for Me

*Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night.
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight.
I am at peace, my soul's at rest.
There is no need for tears,
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not.
The fear is now all gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts.
In your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath,
Remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life.*

Reflections of Life

*“I Have Fought a Good Fight, I Have Finished My Course,
I Have Kept the Faith.”
II Timothy 4:7*

To all my family and friends that have gathered here today to celebrate my life, I know that my life seems all to brief, but please don’t prolong it with undue grief. I want each of you to remember my smile, which was as bright as the stars in the sky. Remember my laughter, which was like the beautiful sound of ocean water.

There’s so much to say, many memories to share about Anna, who did nothing but care about others. Not just for her family, but for all those who she knew. Her genuine kindness would always shine through the darkest situations.

Anna Gibbons was born on May 28, 1937, to the late Lula Gibbons-Kelly and Robert Walker in Louisville, GA. Anna received her formal education in the Jefferson County school system in Louisville, Georgia. She accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and was united with Hardeman Springfield Baptist Church, where she attended as frequently as she could.

In her adult life, Anna moved to Brunswick, Georgia from Louisville, Georgia, where she met Eugene Williams, and a child was born, David.

In her leisure, Anna enjoyed baking, cooking, and reading, and picked up gardening in her retirement years. She was employed for most of her adult life as a personal care provider to others, supporting those in need of compassion, love, and help to ease the pain from physical and medical ailments.

Anna Gibbons departed this life on December 21, 2021. She was preceded in death by her parents; brothers, Charlie Gibbons, Frank Gibbons, and Robert Walker, Jr.; sisters, Henrietta Gibbons Maxwell and Carrie Bell Gibbons; sisters-in-law, Julia Gibbons and Sarah Gibbons; and brothers-in-law, Richard Gibbons and Robert Maxwell.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her son, David Gibbons; daughter-in-law, Silvia Gemelli-Gibbons; brother, Samuel Lee Walker; sisters, Elizabeth Hill-Gibbons, Sarah Walker-Brooks, Margaret Walker-Wilson, Judith Walker-Walker, Dorothy Walker-Landers, Marie Walker-Stanley, and Layvette Walker-McGruder; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, extended family members, and faithful friends.
