

The Moment That You Left Me

(Author Unknown)

The moment that you left me,
My heart was split in two;
One side was filled with memories;
The other side died with you.
I often lay awake at night
When the world is fast asleep;
And take a walk down memory lane
With tears upon my cheek.
Remembering you is easy,
I do it every day;
But missing you is a heartache
That never goes away.
I hold you tightly within my heart
And there you will remain;
You see life has gone on without you,
But will never be the same.

Love,

I Felt An Angel (Author Unknown)

I felt an angel near today, though one I could not see
I felt an angel oh so close, sent to comfort me.
I felt an angel's kiss, soft upon my cheek
And oh, without a single work of caring did it speak
I felt an angel's loving touch, soft upon my heart
And with that touch, I felt the pain and hurt within depart
I felt an angel's tepid tears, fall softly next to mine
And knew that as those tears did dry a new day would be mine
I felt an angel's silken wings enfold me with pure love
And felt a strength within me grow, a strength sent from above
I felt an angel oh so close, though one I could not see
I felt an angel near today, sent to comfort me.

Acknowledgement

Our hearts have been made to rejoice during the passing of our loved one by the many acts of kindness extended to our family.
We understand through the circumstances of the pandemic, it is challenging for many to join this celebration of life. However, your prayers and all expressions of love and sympathy are greatly appreciated. May God's blessings of peace and love continue with love.

Obituary

On Sunday, March 26, 2022, a dear family member, a devoted and loving neighbor and friend departed this life for another land, “a city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God.” Hebrews 11:10

GEORGIA E. GOLDEN, our dear one who has gone on before us, we sorrow, but not as those who have no hope. We sorrow because we shall miss her kind smile, her helpful ways, her encouraging spirit, but mostly, her smart-aleck remarks.

Georgia was born on October 28, 1943, to the late Rev. John E. and the late Lucille C. Golden of St. Simons Island, Georgia. Having surrendered her life to God at an early age, she joined the First African Baptist Church on St. Simons Island, Georgia. There she remained faithful until her death. She worked faithfully and long as the First African Baptist’s Secretary. Let us praise God that she has, along with all other tired laborers, found in God a place to rest.

Georgia attended Harrington Graded School in St. Simons Island and attended Risley Jr. and Sr. High School in Brunswick, Georgia. She graduated from Risley High School in 1961. Upon graduation, she attended Dillard University in New Orleans, Louisiana, where she received her BA Degree, and Atlanta University School of Social Work, Atlanta, Georgia, where she received her master’s degree. She became a social worker in New York City, Atlanta, Georgia and later moved back home to work with the Department of Family and Children’s Service. She retired after many years of faithful service.

In 1986, she became a member of Zeta Iota Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. She was also a member of the St. Simons Land Trust and St. Simons African American Heritage Coalition.

She leaves to cherish her memories: uncle, Clifton Marlon Green (Mildred); her devoted, dedicated, loving, and live-in caregiver and niece, M. Elizabeth Hunter; cousins, Adelphia Jackson-Brown (Robert) of Midway, Georgia, Lucille McNear of Brunswick, Georgia, and Dannie W. Davis, and Marsha Whing, both of Yulee, Florida; Neighbors who were like a brother and sister, Benjamin and Judith Stevens; and a host of other loving cousins, family, and friends.
