

Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile.

If only I could have you back for just a little while.

*Then we could sit and talk again,
Just like we used to do.*

*You always meant so very much,
And always will do too.*

*The fact that you're no longer here,
Will always cause me pain.*

*You're forever in my heart
until we meet again.*

Reflections

*"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me
a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."*

II Timothy 4:7-8

Time well-spent reflects a life well-lived. No empire lasts forever; no dynasty continues unbroken. Someday you and I will be mere legends. All that matters is whether we did what we could with the life that was given to us. We know when we are going to enter this world, but God didn't give a man here on earth the power to determine when our life is going to end. Derrick Lavon Green was born on December 1, 1961, to Elizabeth Jones and Arthur Lee Green in Brunswick, Georgia.

Derrick Green received his formal education in Glynn County School System in Brunswick, Georgia. He accepted Christ as his Savior at Bethel Baptist Church at an early age and was united with Bethel Baptist Church. In his leisure, he enjoyed fishing and he loved basketball. Derrick Green enlisted into the United States Army.

Derrick Green was blessed with a son, Kevin Youngblood

Derrick Lavon Green departed this life on March 23, 2022. He was preceded in death by his mother, Elizabeth Baggs; father, Arthur Lee Green; and other relatives, Patricia Baker, Robert Walker, Jr., and Arthur Lee Green, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memories: son, Kevin Youngblood; sisters, Cynthia Merrell, Kathy D. West, Valarie Carter, Shirley Smith, and Vivian Smith; brother, Ronnie Green; brothers-in-law, Levi Baker and Vincent Jackson; godmother, Ms. Anna Nobles; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.

Heaven is home now; this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.

I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me. It was just my time,

But I will see you someday, on the other side.

Don't cry for me. I am not alone.

The angels are with me to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.

All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me. This is not the end.

I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.
