Obituary

Edward Earl Bazemore was born July 13, 1953 to George Wilson Bazemore Sr. and Georgia A. Bazemore-Pugh. He entered eternal rest on Wednesday, March 18, 2020.

Edward (affectionately called Earl or Eddie) graduated from John A. Holmes High School in Edenton, NC. He later attended the College of Albermarle in Elizabeth City, NC, where he learned the trade of tool and die making. Edward was employed by J.B. Flattery, until obtaining a job at Schneider Electric (formerly Square D) in 1976 and works there for over 20 years.

He later retired from Altec INC, in Creedmoor, NC. Earl also served as referee for many years across the State of North Carolina.

Edward married on April 3, 1974 to Joyce E. Bazemore. In the union three daughters were born, Tameka, Stacy and Tracy Bazemore.

Edward joined St. Johns United Church of Christ in Zebulon, NC where he served faithfully as a head usher, and later as a Deacon on the Deacon Board.

Earl loved to work with his hands. His hobbies included wood working, painting and gardening. He was always fond of animals. Earl was always willing to help someone in need.

Edward Earl Bazemore was preceded in death by his father, George Wilson Bazemore Sr., mother, Georgia A. Bazemore-Pugh, stepfather, Rodney E. Pugh, brothers, George W. Bazemore Jr. and James L. Bazemore; sisters: Gloria Delores Bazemore, Pauline Bazemore Corbett, and Delphine Bazemore Gilliam, nephews, Kiwane Powell and Nekenge Kwasi Skinner.

Edward leaves to cherish his memory: daughters, Tameka, Stacy and Tracy Bazemore; two sisters, Doris Bazemore, and Barbara B. Powell; brother, McCoy Bazemore; sisters-in-law, Stella Bazemore, and Francine Bazemore; godson George A. Strurdivant; and a host of nieces and nephews.
