Obituary

Mr. Willie I. Harris was born to the late Lillie T. Harris and Roger Harris on January 7, 1927. He departed this life on May 14, 2020.

At an early age he worked on the farm for most of his life. He worked a few public jobs, but his final job was working as a mechanic at Athey Products, where he retired.

Willie stayed busy and didn't mind lending a helping hand or giving advice to those who would listen. He amazed a lot of people by fixing and building things that were broken. His daughter Brenda was very impressed that her father could invent things using whatever he had available.

Willie loved his family and would often tell stories of his past and things his mother would say to him. He loved Saint Hope Baptist Church. He was a faithful member and considered the members family too. While his children were growing up, he would often say "come on and go with me to church." He would also say "if you can give the streets some of your time, you can give God some!"

Willie was preceded in death by: three children, Mary Alston (Leroy), William Harris and Donald Harris; two brothers, James Harris and Oliver Harris; three sisters, Alene Bobbitt (Walter), Lillie Mae of Washington, DC and Dorothy Harris of Bailey, NC.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Mrs. Lizzie Harris; four children, Pauline Kearney, Charles Harris, Brenda Lindsey and Cathy Harris; one sister, Geraldine Mann; one daughter-in-law, two sons-in-law; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and special friends of the family.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me
beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
