

Pallbearers

Frank Dial Jr.
Darrell Redmond
Speedy Woodhouse

Wayne Cherry
Eric Woodhouse
Johnathan Woodhouse

Floral Bearers

Grandchildren & Great Grandchildren

Repast

Beach Funeral Services Fellowship Hall
Sylvia Etheridge ~ Caterer
Reception Hostesses ~ Joanne Lewis & Myrtle Brown-Kinard

Expression of Gratitude

The family of the late Fred "Dizzy" Woodhouse would like to thank all of you who have shown acts of kindness offered condolences during the period of his illness and our period of bereavement. All cards, calls, visits, messages, and other expressions are sincerely appreciated. We are especially grateful to his Virginia Village Family and the Staff of Sentara Va. Beach Home Health Services. May God continue to bless and keep each of you.

Celebrating the Life of Fred "Dizzy" Woodhouse

Sunrise
January 13, 1930

Sunset
June 3, 2019

Professional Services Entrusted to Beach Funeral & Cremation Services, Inc.
4456 Bonney Road
Virginia Beach, VA 23462
www.beachfuneralservices.com
Kevin A. Sanderlin, Funeral Director/Owner
Amore C. Sanderlin, Funeral Director/Manager

Monday, June 10, 2019 ~ 2:00pm
Beach Funeral & Cremation Services
4456 Bonney Road
Virginia Beach, VA 23462

Pastor Elder Albert James Jr., Officiating

Life Reflections

Fred Woodhouse, 89 of Virginia Beach, VA went to his heavenly home June 3, 2019. He was born January 1, 1930, in Princess Anne County to the late George Sr. and Annie Wheaton Woodhouse.

He was preceded by his brothers, Linwood, Johnny, George Jr. "Punch", and Stanley Woodhouse; sisters, Mary "Mickey" Holloway, Gladys James and Alice Spellman.

Fred, known affectionally as "Dizzy" was a construction laborer and car dealer. Dizzy was proud of his construction work in his earlier days, building structures such as the Sentara Va. Beach General Hospital, the Dome, and many other landmarks throughout Va. Beach. Dizzy was also known for his car dealerships, legitimate or not. He was there for you when you needed credit to buy a car and couldn't get it. Dizzy had a car for you. If your car couldn't pass state inspection and you needed an inspection sticker, Dizzy was there (now the number of months dictated the cost but be assured he had your back). He had an infamous sales pitch, "It runs like a baby", but once you hit the highway the warranty expired. His heart was genuine, and his smile greeted you always. Dizzy loved both these professions because he truly loved helping people and made many lifelong friends and relationships whom he cherished in doing so. Dizzy loved his neighborhood of Virginia Village, where he continued to live after the passing of his parents. In his neighborhood Dizzy was affectionally, known as "Izzy". His extended family in Virginia Village was dear to him and treated him with so much kindness and respect. He was dedicated to his daily walks in the neighborhood to pass the time and to stay in touch with his friends who lived there. But his family was second to none, you couldn't find anyone who Dizzy didn't recognize as his cousin. "EVERYBODY" was kin folks. He always gave the little kids a $1 no matter what because he was their Uncle Dizzy. Dizzy was a supporter of the United Police Officers Association (UPOA).

Dizzy leaves to cherish his memories, a loving wife, Evelyn; his daughter, Barbara Anne Mitchell; son, Earl Woodhouse (Doita); six grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; devoted and dedicated nieces, Alice Blalock, Shirley Cherry, Tracy Murray (Kelvin); special great nieces and nephews, Frank and Sheryl Dial; Demar, Benita, Kelvin Jr. and Kenita Murray; Speedy Woodhouse, Eric and Johnathan Woodhouse, Sandra Dennis; Wanda, Walter Jr. "Zeke"; Wade Cherry, Anthony Blalock Jr.; additional special loved ones, Darrell, Torie, Tena, Chasity and Chris Redmond, Travon Owens and host of nieces and nephews, relatives and friends.

"Stop being impressed by people who can quote scripture...Be impressed by those that live scripture"

Order of Celebration

Musical Prelude Minister Rydell Mason

Processional Clergy, Family & Friends

Invocation

Opening Hymn Minister Rydell Mason

Reading of the Holy Scriptures

Old Testament Psalm 34:1-8 Evangelist Carole Magwood

New Testament John 14:1-6 Deaconess Karen Riddick

Prayer of Comfort

Musical Selection Minister Rydell Mason

Acknowledgements Wanda Robinson

Expressions & Tributes (limit 2 min please)..... Family and Friends

Silent Reading of the Obituary ~ (soft music)

Musical Selection Minister Rydell Mason

Eulogy Pastor Elder Albert L. James, Jr.

Closing Prayer

Mortician's Brief Beach Funeral Services

Recessional Clergy, Family & Friends

Interment

*Betty Jones Cemetery
4698 N. Witchduck Road
Va. Beach, VA*

*For all the negative things we have to say to ourselves,
God has a positive answer for it.*

You Say, God Says ...

You say: "It's impossible."

God says: "All things are possible." (Luke 18:27)

You say: "I'm too tired."

God says: "I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28-30)

You say: "Nobody really loves me."

God says: "I love you." (John 3:16 & John 13:34)

You say: "I can't go on."

God says: "My grace is sufficient." (2 Corinthians 12:9 & Psalm 91:15)

You say: "I can't figure things out."

God says: "I will direct your steps." (Proverbs 3:5-6)

You say: "I can't do it."

God says: "You can do all things." (Philippians 4:13)

You say: "I'm not able."

God says: "I am able." (2 Corinthians 9:8)

You say: "It's not worth it."

God says: "It will be worth it." (Roman 8:28)

You say: "I can't forgive myself."

God says: "I forgive you." (1 John 1:9 & Romans 8:1)

You say: "I can manage."

*For all the negative things we have to say to ourselves,
God has a positive answer for it.*

You Say, God Says ...

You say: "It's impossible."

God says: "All things are possible." (Luke 18:27)

You say: "I'm too tired."

God says: "I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28-30)

You say: "Nobody really loves me."

God says: "I love you." (John 3:16 & John 13:34)

You say: "I can't go on."

God says: "My grace is sufficient." (2 Corinthians 12:9 & Psalm 91:15)

You say: "I can't figure things out."

God says: "I will direct your steps." (Proverbs 3:5-6)

You say: "I can't do it."

God says: "You can do all things." (Philippians 4:13)

You say: "I'm not able."

God says: "I am able." (2 Corinthians 9:8)

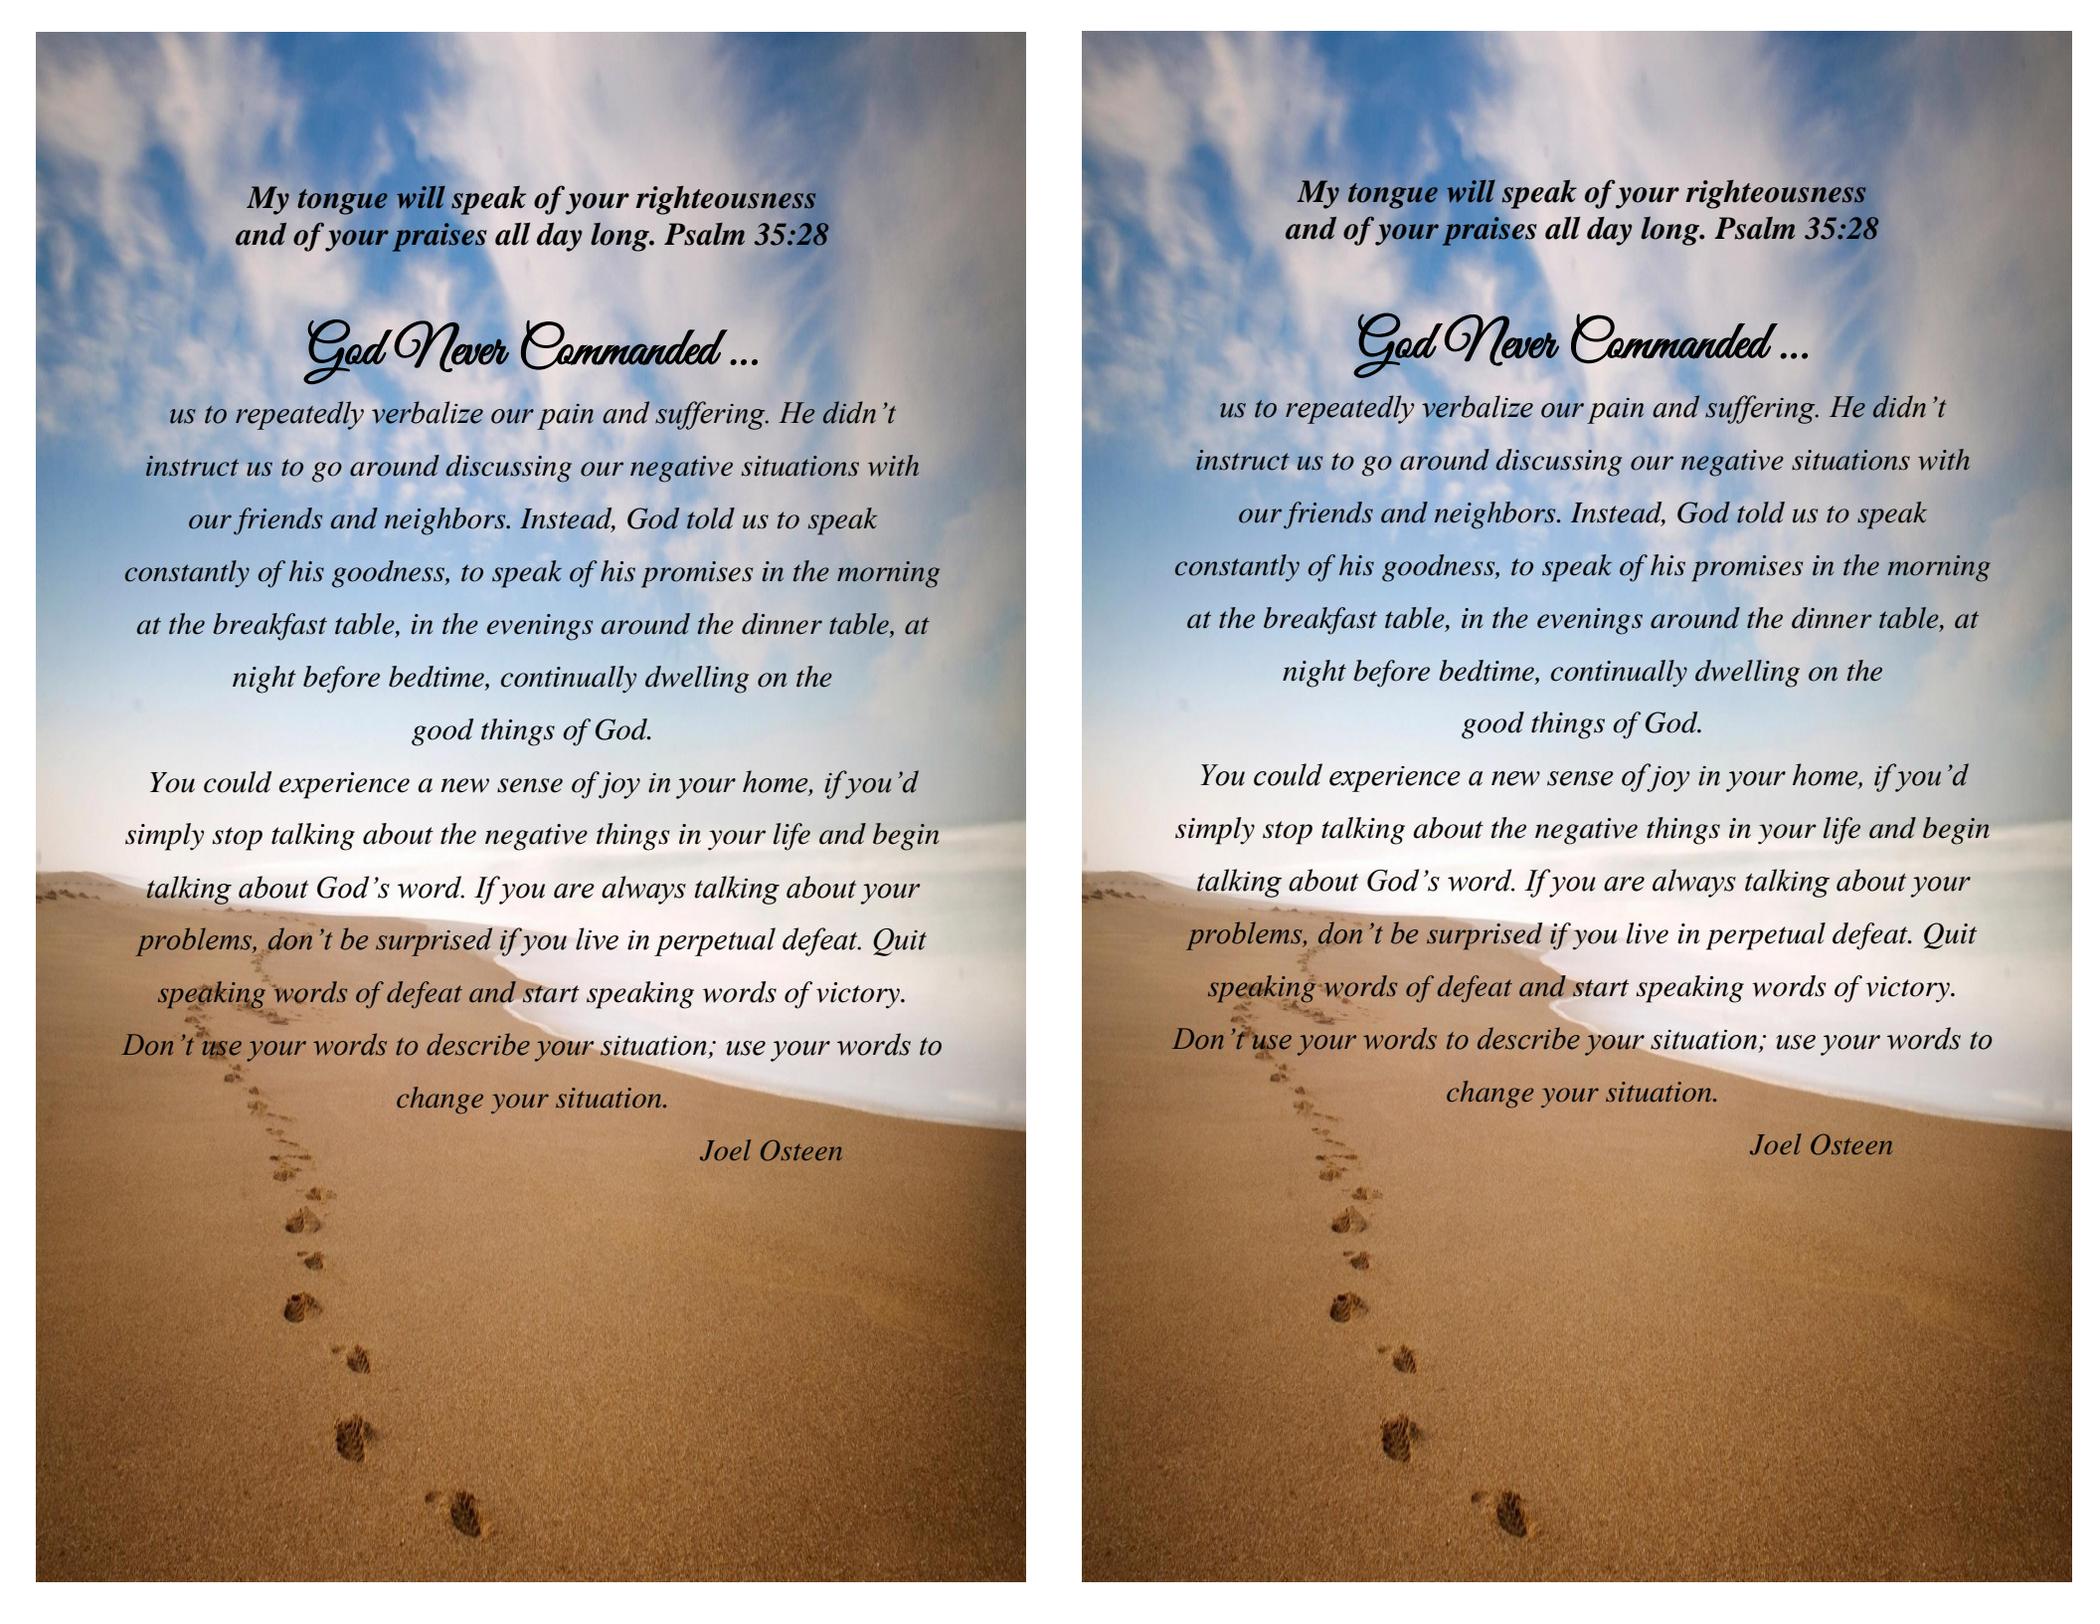

You say: "It's not worth it."

God says: "It will be worth it." (Roman 8:28)

You say: "I can't forgive myself."

God says: "I forgive you." (1 John 1:9 & Romans 8:1)

You say: "I can manage."

*My tongue will speak of your righteousness
and of your praises all day long. Psalm 35:28*

God Never Commanded ...

us to repeatedly verbalize our pain and suffering. He didn't instruct us to go around discussing our negative situations with our friends and neighbors. Instead, God told us to speak constantly of his goodness, to speak of his promises in the morning at the breakfast table, in the evenings around the dinner table, at night before bedtime, continually dwelling on the good things of God.

You could experience a new sense of joy in your home, if you'd simply stop talking about the negative things in your life and begin talking about God's word. If you are always talking about your problems, don't be surprised if you live in perpetual defeat. Quit speaking words of defeat and start speaking words of victory. Don't use your words to describe your situation; use your words to change your situation.

Joel Osteen

*My tongue will speak of your righteousness
and of your praises all day long. Psalm 35:28*

God Never Commanded ...

us to repeatedly verbalize our pain and suffering. He didn't instruct us to go around discussing our negative situations with our friends and neighbors. Instead, God told us to speak constantly of his goodness, to speak of his promises in the morning at the breakfast table, in the evenings around the dinner table, at night before bedtime, continually dwelling on the good things of God.

You could experience a new sense of joy in your home, if you'd simply stop talking about the negative things in your life and begin talking about God's word. If you are always talking about your problems, don't be surprised if you live in perpetual defeat. Quit speaking words of defeat and start speaking words of victory. Don't use your words to describe your situation; use your words to change your situation.

Joel Osteen