

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah, yes, these things too I will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.

Expressions of Gratitude

We the Moore family would like to thank everyone for the many expressions of kindness, support, and love that you have shown to us during this difficult time.

Life Reflections

Shelia Anita Moore, 61, of Portsmouth, VA peacefully departed from this world on June 15, 2021. She was born on February 7, 1960 in Coleraine, NC to the late Carey Lee and Gwendolyn Watford.

Shelia was raised in Ahoskie, NC where she met and married, Lionell V. Moore, Sr. She spent her young adult life as a United States Army Wife, traveling to places like Germany and Hawaii. Shelia and Lionell, together raised four beautiful children. Later, Shelia settled in Portsmouth, VA where she was known for taking anyone in as her own, always having kind words, great advice, and warm hugs. She enjoyed watching football and she was a huge fan of the Washington Redskins football team. Shelia was a caring mother, grandmother, and friend. Many in the community 'til this very day, affectionately called her "Mom".

Besides her parents, Shelia was predeceased by her grandparents and her beloved son, Antonia R. Moore.

She leaves behind to lovingly continue her legacy her children, Lionell V. Moore II (Denetra) of Virginia Beach, VA, Latosha M. Moore of N. Wilkesboro, NC, LaKisha L. Moore of Virginia Beach, VA; grandchildren, Asja, MiKiyah, Denim, Lionell III, Javien, Antonio, Lylanii, Ayonna; brother, Sherwin Lee Watford of Akron, OH; special friends James and Emma Willis, Ralph Lawton and a host of other relatives and friends.
