Family & Friends

Expression of Gratitude

Thank you for your cards, your thoughtfulness, and your kindness in the passing of our loved one. It's comforting to know that others care and are praying for our family.

May God bless each and everyone of you.

With Love, the Grimstead, Holloman, Hamlin, and Langley family.

Nana's Prayer

My Nana's Prayer have been a fortress of love around me since the day I was born.

As I've gotten older I know

my Nana's Prayer's have kept me grounded, provided a way, and kept me safe.

No weapon formed against me shall prosper.

My Nana's Prayer's are stronger than my own

Cheyenne Lawrence, your granddaughter

Life Reflections

"I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. John 17:4"

Helen V. Langley, 89, our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt grew tired, so the Lord called her home on October 5, 2021. She was born on August 18, 1932 in Pantego, NC to the late Frederick and Pearlina Boyd.

Helen was predeceased by her loving husband, Charles E. Langley Sr; two sons, Charles E. Langley Jr., and Stanley M. Langley.

Helen leaves to cherish her memories, her daughters, Debra Holloman (Ulysses), Laverne Grimstead. Charlene Hamlin (Stan); sons, Alvin Langley (Pam), Kenneth Langley; sister, Evelyn Boyd; and a host of wonderful grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends.

*She loved each and everyone of them.
She will be missed. We love you.*
